Service Station Attendant Robbed Of $250, Pistol

Two robbers took about $250 and a pistol from an attendant at the Moto Service Station on Route 203, south of Madison, at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The attendant, Danny Lewis, said that as the men entered the station one displayed a .22 caliber revolver and demanded Lewis give them money. The second man then pulled a pistol which is kept in the station.

The men pushed him in the back room of the station and took $25 from his shirt pocket and his wallet, containing $20. They then opened the station cash drawer and took about $200 and a 25 caliber chrome-plated pistol and fled through the back door, Lewis reported.

The attendant said as he looked out the back door he saw a car driving toward Eagle Park Acres.

The gunman was described as about 24 years old, five feet, five inches tall, stocky build, weighing about 190 pounds and wearing a red shirt or sweater, a three-quarter length black jacket and a wide brimmed hat. His left ear was pierced and he was wearing a gold earring, Lewis related.

The accomplice was described as about 18, weighing about 150 pounds and wearing a long black hair, Lewis said. The same height as the gunman and was wearing a similar jacket, according to Lewis.

Nonn, chairman of the council's Pollution Plant Committee, that the council authorize preparation of an agreement necessary to a bond issue, and that the city also pay $36,000 in fees will have this levy of about $3 million in bonds approved.

The $3 million in bonds approximates 20% of the $15.3 million projected cost of the city's secondary sewage treatment facilities, which include a new sewage treatment plant and interceptor sewers that would serve a system of sanitary collector sewers planned for construction in Nemoqui, Venice and Chouteau Townships.

The move to finance the city's share of construction costs brought in Mayor Donald Partney a suggestion that the city take a "new look" at its secondary treatment requirements as a result of the planned shutdown of the Granite City plant of Miles Laboratories.

Expect Substantial Loss

Mayor Partney told the council that approximately half of the treatment volumes at the present sewage treatment plant is emitted by the Miles plant. The city will lose approximately $120,000 per year in sewage treatment fees after the plant is closed, the mayor said.

The treatment plant now handles a volume of about 10 million gallons per day, with about 5 million of that coming from the Miles plant, he said.

"It is conceivable that our plant for secondary sewage treatment need not be as great as we first believed, since we will have the loss of about 5 million gallons a day," Mayor Partney said.

The mayor said the Miles plant now pays about $10,000 per month in sewage treatment fees, all of which will be lost to the city when the plant operation is discontinued.

Rental Cost High

At the same time the mayor announced that rental costs for land on which to build secondary facilities adjoining the present treatment plant in the Granite City Army Installation has been set at a figure much higher than that paid for the 14 acres now under lease.

As a result, the mayor said, he plans a trip to Washington to confer with officials of the Office of General Administration in an attempt to get the lease cost for the new tract reduced.

The mayor said that the OGA has set a monthly rental of $50 on a tract of 20 acres which the city wishes to lease under a long-term agreement (50 years) for the secondary treatment plant. This amounts to a monthly rental cost of $2.50 per acre.

In comparison, the city now pays $133 per month for 14 acres on which the present treatment plant is located, or a monthly rental of $9.50 per acre.

As the council moved to finance the secondary treatment system, Mayor Partney said a city of the city would require $3 million to pay its estimated 20% share.

The city is anticipating a 50% grant from the federal government and a 30% grant from the state.

Under federal and state financing arrangements, grants will not be available, however, until the city has 25% of the construction under way. This means the city must find the money to begin the project and pay for planning and engineering. Council members agreed that a bond issue is the only source of funds.

Calvo's Job

Legal steps for the bond issue will be worked out by Horace Calvo, Granite City attorney, who was appointed by the city council as bond attorney, over Mayor Partney's objections, several months ago.

Nonn told the council Monday night that "the way this project is dragging along we're never going to meet the deadline unless things start moving and moving fast." State and Federal Environmental Protection Agencies have set a Dec. 31, 1973, deadline for completion of the secondary facilities here.

Partney said that the bond issue should be set at 20% of the total cost projection because the city still will need to build a system of interceptor sewers to serve the township sanitary collectors when they are built. He said he had been informed that the township sewer sponsors still intend to use Granite City treatment facilities, despite development of an alternative plan by township officials that would use the Lansdowne Plant facilities of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

Two Bandits Rob Madison Store

Two robbers, one armed with a pistol, took $45 from the cash register of Chamberlain's Confectionery, 1401 McCambridge Ave., Madison, while holding the store owner at gunpoint at 5:50 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Edna Chamberlain, owner of the store, said the two men entered and asked for change to make a telephone call. She said as she gave one man the change, he displayed a pistol and told her, "Don't make any noise or scream or I'll kill you."

She said while the one robber held her at gunpoint, the other man walked over to the cash register. She was then told to sit on a stool at the front counter. One man took off her eyeglasses and set them on the store counter. Mrs. Chamberlain reported.

The men then left and ran south on McCambridge Avenue and then west on Fourth Street.

She told officers both men were about 30 years of age. The man with the pistol was wearing a dark, hooded sweatshirt, an Afro haircut and was wearing a black jacket and dark trousers. The other man was wearing a one inch turtleneck and was wearing a black jacket and a knit hat, she related.

Schools Fear Big Aid Loss

By MARION BARTOSIAK
Press-Record Staff Writer

The Granite City School District could lose more than $1 million in state aid a year if an unfavorable decision is rendered in a suit filed recently in the U. S. District Court in Chicago, Supt. B. J. Davis told members of the Board of Education Monday night.

He said the suit, filed for a minor against State Superintendent of Public Instruction Michael J. Bakalis and others, asks a three-judge district court to declare the Illinois School Code state aid provisions unconstitutional and void as community unit districts are favored over dual districts.

It also asks that the state be enjoined from distribution of state aid money on the present basis and to order future state aid in an manner that will be equal.

Davis said, "If we were operating as a dual district this year, we would be receiving $1,088,747 less than we are receiving as a unit district. This is equivalent to about 80 cents on the local tax rate."

Asked to Intervene

He said that all unit districts in the state are being asked to intervene jointly in the interests of the 419 unit districts in the state. The estimated legal cost is about $30,000, and the cost to the local school district would range from $300 to $1,400, depending upon the number of districts participating.

When asked by board members about effect, including possible closure of schools, Davis said it would border on a financial disaster and force a curtailment of services and programs.

William Schooley, school administrator, said he was sure the State Legislature would take immediate steps to restore the funding.

Davis said the state has provided the difference between unit and dual districts for 25 years to encourage formation of unit districts.

Hearing Impaired

During the meeting the board heard a report made by James Sloan, supervisor for the Southwestern Region for Hearing Impaired. He said he is seeking to cluster classes in one location, possibly Granite City, to improve the quality of the program.

He said there are 35 primary age children in the county who are hearing impaired, and classes have been spread out. Plans call for an educational program to begin for hearing disabled children at the age of 3.

The board reinstated two of three Junior High School students who were expelled on arson charges following a fire at the school last year. At the school the recommendation of the hearing officer and Coordinated Youth Services which conducted the continuing which it on page 5, col. 6)

Drugs Blamed as Youths Are Found 'Asleep' -- One Is Pronounced Dead

Young people cannot know their future. But a chilling glimpse of what can befall those who experiment with drugs was provided by a tragedy in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Granite City this week, police believe.

Two young men, both 19 years old, found "asleep" early yesterday, are thought to be victims of the "drug culture" which has flourished in America during the last several years. One is seriously ill, and the other is dead.

Danny Creek, 1501 Edwardsville Road, was found dead, Stephen Mueller, 204 Kirkpatrick Homes, was admitted to the intensive care unit of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Both were found lying, side by side, in the middle of the living room of an upstairs apartment, 1832a East 23rd St. Police were summoned there at 2 a.m. Wednesday by Dennis Coleman, 3219 Westchester Drive, who said he had just arrived at the apartment and discovered the young men.

Coleman told police that Mr. Creek, lying on his stomach, did not appear to be breathing. He attempted to restore breath by applying pressure on the chest, and then called and asked for an ambulance.

After authorities arrived, Mr. Creek was pronounced dead by Deputy Coroner Edward Warner.

Mueller was taken by ambulance to the hospital, where by noon Wednesday he was reported to be in fair condition in the ICU unit.

Former Madisonian One Of Two Crash Victims

Two persons were killed in separate traffic accidents occurring in the Quad-City area since Monday.

The dead:

Miss Sharon Lee Grieve, 17, of Collinsville and formerly of Madison, injured fatally in a two-car crash on State Aid Route 35, one-half mile west of Route 111, at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Charles Favre, 40, New Douglas, Ill., killed when struck by a truck on the Illinois side of the Interstate-270 bridge at 1:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Miss Grieve, driver of one of the cars in the collision on Route 35, was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 7:50 a.m.

A passenger in her car, Miss Georgia Gallaher, 17, of Caseyville, and the driver of the other, Alfred Hookway, 48, of O'Fallon, were taken by ambulance to the hospital.

State troopers said Miss Grieve's car was passing another vehicle and the Hookway auto was westbound when they collided.

Miss Gallaher was treated for abrasions to her forehead and upper lip, and a contusion and abrasion to her right arm. X-rays were taken in her car.

Released from Hospital

Hookway was released for abrasions to the left side of his face, a small laceration to his left ear and abrasions to his left elbow. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Miss Grieve was born in Highland and lived in Madison prior to moving to 124 National Ter. ago. She was a junior at Collinsville High School, Greenwood campus. She was of the Baptist faith.

She is survived by her parents, Robert Louis Grieve of Madison and Mrs. Shirley Rose Carrier of Bethalto; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shilling of Belleville and Mrs. Dean Cabello of Collinsville; her great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elliott of Belleville; four brothers, Jeffrey Allan, Bryan Keith and Robert Louis Grieve Jr. of Bethalto; and a sister, Mrs. Cynthia Dean Grieve of Bethalto.

Funeral services were to be held at 2:30 p.m. today at a Collinsville funeral home with burial in Frieden's Cemetery, Troy.

Mr. Favre was pushing his stalled auto on the westbound lanes of the bridge when it was struck by a semi-trailer driven by Robert F. Smyser of Charleston, Ill. Smyser was uninjured.

Illinois State Trooper Jerry Cullen said the auto lights were turned off. He said the car and truck struck each other and struck a concrete center pier and burned, sending flames 15 feet into the air.

Heavy traffic was tied up for about 1 1/2 hours and a jam extended to Route 3 on the Illinois side.

Mitchell's Volunteer Fire Department was called but was unable to reach the scene until about 8 a.m. because the bridge was blocked. St. Louis firemen also were on hand.

Mr. Favre, who was born in Edwardsville and lived in New Douglas nine years. He was employed as a machinist for the Illinois Tool Works Co. in St. Louis, and owned and operated Favre's Garage in New Douglas.

City's Census Figure Changed--Now 40,685

Granite City now is a city of 40,685 persons, an official change announced Monday.

The increase of 245 population over the 40,440 figure set earlier as a result of the 1970 U. S. Census was reported to city council members Monday night in a certificate received from the office of Secretary of State John Lewin at Springfield.

The "certificate of amendment" stated merely that the city's population is officially recorded as 40,685 instead of 40,440. Cause of the change was not explained in the document.

Corn Milling Firm In Discussion Here

Officials of Corn Sweeteners, Inc., a Miles subsidiary, Inc. conferred here yesterday afternoon with Quad-City mayors and financial business and development leaders.

The two firms signed an agreement Feb. 17 in Elkhart, Ind., transferring local corn wet-milling and refining sales orders to Corn Sweeteners. Miles retains ownership of its local Union Milling Operations plant, which will close March 31.

Corn Sweeteners this winter and spring will make an engineering and economic study of the Granite City plant, facilities, product lines and future market conditions to determine if it is feasible to operate the plant. Aspects of the study were discussed yesterday, with no conclusions reached.

Public Hearing on GC Mail Construction Set Tuesday

A public hearing on the proposal to construct a downtown Granite City mail will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the courtroom on the third floor of the City Hall.

Testimony will be presented concerning cost and a program of special assessments under which the project will be financed.

Alderman Walter Nonn, a member of the Board of Local Improvements which will conduct the hearing, told the Granite City council Monday night that downtown merchants "are enthusiastic" over the mail proposal and that plans for the March 31 closing of the Granite City plant of Miles Laboratories, Inc. have in no way discouraged interest in the mail.

"I have talked with downtown merchants during the last few days and they are very enthusiastic over the mail plan, Nonn told the aldermen. "They don't seem discouraged a bit by this thing (the Miles plant shutdown) and want to go ahead."

The project cost has been estimated at $250,000 by Harland Bartholomew & Associates, St. Louis planning engineers who now are working on detailed construction plans.

The Board of Local Improvements will have the job of determining the amounts to be assessed against owners of property within and adjoining the mail improvement area.

The special assessment method of financing the mail construction was decided upon in preference to voluntary contributions, the plan first adopted to pay the cost when the plan was devised in early 1969.

Beverage Deposit Hearings Await Court Decision

Copley News Service

Springfield — A court decision on public hearings for the Illinois anti-pollution measure which would require deposits on all beverage cans and bottles is not likely to be handed down before the end of March. A spokesman from the attorney general's office gave the time estimate.

The state Institute for Environmental Quality task force on solid waste management has recommended that a regulation be adopted which would require a cash deposit on every container for soft drinks or alcoholic beverages sold in the state.

The Pollution Control Board had set a series of public hearings on the proposal, to begin in January.

But a group of petitioners—headed by a Chicago area supermarket operator and including labor unions, beverage distributors and container manufacturers—sought and obtained a Circuit Court injunction which barred the PCB from holding the scheduled hearings.

Representing the state, and the PCB, the attorney general's office has filed briefs supporting its stand that the injunction should be dissolved. It has asked the Supreme Court to hear the case directly as a matter of overriding public interest.

The Supreme Court justices who heard those arguments indicated the high court is not included, at this time, to consider the case on a direct appeal. But he didn't oppose the filing of briefs, according to Alan Landgraf of the attorney general's Chicago staff.

Meanwhile, back in the Appellate Court, the petitioners will present their briefs, after which the attorney general's staff will file replies, with all filings scheduled to be completed during February.

Oral arguments will probably follow by late March, Landgraf said.

There is no time limit for a decision on the case, which could be taken under advisement following the arguments for an indefinite period. Because of the nature of the case, a long delay is not expected.

Landgraf said the attorney general's office is filing copies of its Appellate Court brief with the Supreme Court, and may again ask that court to take the appeal directly, since it is bound to come before the Supreme Court no matter what the Appellate Court decides.

The Institute for Environmental Quality and the attorney general's staff have argued that events are out of sequence in granting an injunction to prevent even the open hearings on the proposed regulations.

They contend that if the rule is adopted after such hearings, the plaintiffs then have adequate remedies at law to which they could resort to try prohibiting enforcement of the regulation.

Winter Weather Spurs Use of Snowmobiles

By JOAN MURARO
Copley News Service

Springfield — Snowmobiles — a boon or a bane depending on your point of view — are continuing to increase their numbers along Illinois' snowy backroads and byways.

Presently there are over 13,000 of the speedy, popular snow vehicles registered in the state, and with recent snow cover extending over much of Illinois the registrations are still coming in "at a tremendous rate," says Kenneth Gruenewald of the boat registration division of the Illinois department of conservation.

The boat registration division handles snowmobile registration as well as boats, and so far this year the snowmobile business has been recently that the division still hasn't been able to finish the official tally of boats registered in the state last year. Usually the total is available by the end of January.

The snowmobile registration law became effective last Aug. 27, but at that time the necessary forms were not available and "we only finally got into

Lewis Asks Employees Status Be Changed

Secretary of State John W. Lewis announced Thursday that he has requested that approximately 2,500 employees of the Office of the Secretary of State be placed under the state personnel code.

Secretary Lewis made the request in a letter to Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie. In the letter, Secretary Lewis stated:

"I offer the following reasons in support of this request:

"1. To be able to maintain a high degree of efficiency it is necessary that all employees be correctly classified and that their abilities be recognized.

"2. Code coverage would also assure no disruption of necessary service to the public and would guard against excessive costs of transition periods.

"3. It will give the office the ability to be supplied with qualified personnel and to foster and maintain the principle of merit employment.

"4. In addition, it offers the opportunity for maximum development and utilization of human resources in state government.

Secretary Lewis said "the decision to bring the employees under the personnel code came about following a study of the Office of the Secretary of State that lasted several months."

There already are approximately 5,000 employees of the office under the Personnel Code. These include some personnel in the Illinois State Library and the Data Processing Division.

In addition, Secretary Lewis created the Division of Investment last year to provide a professional investigative force for the office. Nearly 250 employees of this division were placed under the Personnel Code by Secretary Lewis.

The snowmobile registration business is about 11 November, Gruenewald said.

Each of the well over 13,000 owners who have registered their vehicles so far have paid a $6 fee for a two-year registration. Boats are also registered for two years at a time, but the fee there is only $4.

Like the money received from boat registrations, the fees gathered from registering snowmobiles go into special funds which in turn pay for developing sites for snowmobile use, and for other costs connected specifically with the snowmobile program.

Regional Report -- Port, Levee, Music Festival in News

(Illinois Metro-East Industrial Development Corporation)

Major regional development in airport and port news favored the Illinois area.

John H. Shaffer, administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration, said in St. Louis that this region definitely needs a major new airport, and that the FAA currently is giving consideration to one site, the Dewey Avenue Methodist Church and the Senior Citizens' Bowling League.

He added that neither of two being urged by Missouri is acceptable because of overlap of Lambert Field air space.

And he stressed that Lambert will continue as a "short haul" airport.

In port news, strong emphasis was placed on further port development along the Illinois side of the Chain of Rocks Canal and the Mississippi River by speakers, including Col. Ed. St. Louis District Army engineer, at a hearing on a proposed multi-million-dollar study related to improvement of harbors in the St. Louis region.

Cooperative efforts on the part of the entire region were called for in the development of port projects.

Carl A. Ranft, manager of the Tri-City Regional Port District, and Dr. H. J. Nebel, president of the Southwest Regional Port District, offered the assistance of the two Illinois port districts in the venture.

In related news, seven appointments were made to a "Missouri-St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority." Four were made by Gov. Warren E. Hearnes and three by St. Louis County Supervisor Lawrence Roos.

Mayor A. J. Cervantes of St. Louis, entitled to three appointments, is awaiting legal opinion on the constitutionality of the law creating the authority to promote the building of a new airport in Missouri, before deciding whether to announce his appointments.

Members named by Roos were John L. Gillis, senior vice-president of Monsanto Co. and chairman of the Missouri Citizens for Missouri Airport Site, Donald E. Lasater, board chairman and chief executive of Mercantile Trust Co., and W. R. Persons, board chairman and chief executive of Emerson

Two Contest Vote For County Board

Two Democratic candidates for county board seats who were declared losers by small margins in the Feb. 8 primary election have filed election contest proceedings in circuit court at Edwardsville.

Edgar H. Patrick, Nameoki township collector, seeks a recount in Nameoki District 26 where he was defeated by 21 votes by Incumbent Supervisor Louis Whitsell. Patrick polled 619 to Whitsell's 640 votes on the basis of returns by the vote canvass.

Walter Sparks, incumbent supervisor of Chouteau township, asks a recount in District 16 where he was defeated by 16 votes by Albert E. Doerr of South Roxana. The vote was 504 to 489.

Patrick alleges that his election chances were prejudiced by a judge at one of the township's 11 polling places. Sparks contends the votes were improperly counted in five of the district's seven precincts.

The board directors of the St. Louis Community Chamber of Commerce passed a resolution calling for expansion of Lambert St. Louis International Airport and urges building a new airport in Missouri when needed.

As part of a program to increase pig iron and steelmaking capabilities, Granite City Steel Co. began operations in its second and newly relined and rehabilitated blast furnace. Granite City Steel, as a result, can expect to maintain pig iron production at a relatively high level for the next several years.

The relining and modernization project included installation of a smokeless excess blast furnace gas bleeder-burner stack, a project of the company's environmental improvement program.

In other development news, the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers has agreed to renovate deteriorating tunnels under the main Mississippi River levee at East St. Louis.

Ground was broken for a 40-foot motel at the northeast corner of Illinois 159 and Interstate 70 in Maryville.

An apartment complex, a mobile home park and golf course are being planned for a 772-acre tract along Route 111; and a contract for construction of a new 3,300-square-foot first station at Arlington Avenue and College Street in State Park Place has been awarded.

Albert Cassens of Edwardsburg has been named chairman of the Mississippi River Festival, Inc., board of directors for 1972-73.

The board authorized a six-week season, from July 7 through Aug. 13 on the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

The St. Louis Symphony will be featured in twelve concerts. An additional dozen folk, rock, and pop programs will be scheduled.

No decision was made on possible revision of ticket prices for the pop concerts.

In general area news, Alan C. Richter, St. Clair County director of administration, was elected chairman of the East-West Gateway Council executive advisory committee.

Venue may get first priority for federal funds under a new program that appropriates money for urban highway projects which would help pay the costs of a project to relocate Broadway.

The Alliance for Regional Community Health again postponed action on new hospitals in the area, which include a proposed Madison County area hospital.

The Village of East Alton board of trustees has approved annexing a 52-acre farm to the village.

And organization of a group called the Cahokia Society, to promote cultural and historical interest in Cahokia Mound State Park, was announced by Nelson Reed, president of the society.

History Is Alive in Virginia, Club Told

The historical significance of many areas in Virginia was the topic of Al Gross, Granite City Kiwanis secretary, who related details of a recent tour he made through the Virginia countryside at a club dinner meeting Monday evening at Charlie's Restaurant.

Gross, an employee of the federal government, made several excursions to places of importance in the nation's history while attending a 6-week training school at Petersburg, Va.

All the historical locales were within a 100-mile radius of Petersburg at Williamsburg, where he described tours to Newport News where he visited a museum equipped with vessels, some dating to the Civil War era, and is Jamestown.

In comparison, Gross said, was a visit to a futuristic exhibition at Williamsburg, where detailed mockups of U. S. space vehicles and astronauts are displayed.

Fifteen Kiwanians were at the dinner meeting. A brief business session was conducted by Darrell Wieble, president.

Top Demos Take Ogilvie Off Hook on Tax Issue

By KEN WATSON
Copy News Service

Springfield — The state income tax is being defused as a campaign issue.

It's a big break for Republican Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie and is certain to boost his uphill campaign for a second term.

Most surprising about the development is that it is top Democrats themselves who apparently are taking Ogilvie off the hook.

The abrupt shift in the tax situation began when Mayor Richard J. Daley told reporters that the city of Chicago should be given the authority to levy a city income tax if it so chose.
Later he elaborated that he was not currently proposing an income tax for Chicago, but that it is more equitable than the property tax and that the city should have the power to levy whatever tax it considered best. The legislature would have to grant such power.

But the Daley comments were only the curtain-raiser. The big break came later when Lt. Gov.
Paul Simon, acknowledged front-runner for the Democrat nomination for governor, formally proposed that the state increase the income tax to individuals as part of a restructuring of the Illinois tax system that would include elimination of sales taxes and reduction of others.

"We Know Direction"

In his prepared statement Simon said: "The truth is that we know the direction we should go. We must move away from the present personal property tax and the real estate tax for the financing of education toward greater reliance on the income tax, both to guarantee equality educational opportunities for all Illinois children, and to have a fairer tax structure."
Ogilvie quickly snapped up

GC Park Board
Oks Planning
For Two Parks

The Granite City Board of Park Commissioners authorized Harland Bartholomew & Associates to prepare master plans for Worthen and West Granite parks and approved bids for several items, including a van-pooler, at its meeting last night.

Preparation of general development plans for the two park sites was approved in June at a cost of $5,500. Despite the delay in proceeding with the project, the engineering firm has agreed to prepare the plans at its original contract price, Frank Rea, secretary, reported.

Master plans for both park areas will assure that developing, landscaping and equipping the parks will be carried out in a coordinated manner, rather than one a piecemeal basis, it was explained.

Commissioners agreed to purchase a van-truck vehicle, equipped with a jump seat,
from Matthews Chevrolet Co., on a lease plan of $2,848. Also approved was a $3,016 bid from
B. E. Hohl Ford Co.

Fleishman Sporting Goods of Granite City received a purchase contract for 88 dozen baseballs, ranging in price from $13.40 to $18.10 per dozen.
Also approved were bids from S. G. Adams Co., St. Louis for two filing cabinets, at a cost of $182, and B. F. Goodrich for tires on one or two lower leaves at $22 per tire.

Disapproved by the commissioners was a request to use the lighted softball fields at Wilson Park by the Mid-West Semi-Pro Football League. Possible damage to the diamonds was cited in the refusal.

Permission was granted to the Mexican Honorary Commission to utilize the Lincoln Place Community Center to rehearse the May fiesta musical on Thursday evenings and the Leisure Hour Pinafore Club and Rebekah Lodge of the Nameoki Recreation Center.

Terrier Dog Wounded

James Waynick, 2119 Benton
St., reported at 9:40 p.m.
Wednesday that someone shot or knifed his black and white

1962 Auto Stolen

Albert J. Cochran, 3005 Myrtle Ave., reported at 10:05 p.m.
Wednesday that his 1962 four-door Ford was stolen from the lot at the Bethel Chapel, 25th and Iowa streets.

Shoelifting Reported

of cigarettes at the Kroger Market at the Nameoki Village

the political football and commented that he is "clarity opposed to any increase in the income tax" and charged that it is apparent that Democrats are determined to increase that tax.

The Simon strategy has come as somewhat of a surprise at the Statehouse. The income tax has been considered the biggest handicap to Ogilvie's re-election hopes and it had been believed that Simon and the Democrats would do nothing to blur
the public inclination to blame
Ogilvie solely for it.

The Democrat shift represents success for the Ogilvie strategy of frankly accepting responsibility for the income tax and stressing that without it Illinois would long ago have slipped into financial chaos.

Approach Going Over

Perhaps the Ogilvie frank approach is going over with the voters and thus Simon decided to box. It is becoming increasingly apparent that the entire tax structure involving the federal and state and local government will face revamping in the next year or so.

The public is gradually becoming aware of this and as a result any political campaigning that simply would berate Ogilvie for the state income tax might not go over as well as originally hoped.

Ironically what voter influence income tax has may now hurt Simon in the primary rather than Ogilvie in the general election. Walking Dan Simon's hard-won victory over primary foe, jumped into battle right on the heels of the first Daley comments. Walker thought that if elected governor he would veto any bill to permit a city income tax.

Walker can be expected to fight heavily at the Simon stand on the tax issue. Once again campaign year 1972 continues to surprise.

GIVING HOUSE PLANTS A BATH

Dust and water spots on house plants are easily removed by washing, brushing or wiping with warm water to remove without harm to your plants.

Smoothed-leaved plants are commonly rinsed with warm tap water to remove dust and spots.
When dust or spots resist gentle rinsing dip a wet cloth in a mild detergent and wash the smooth glossy surface. Rinse the plants in clean water to remove the last trace of the detergent.

Hairy-leaved plants can be washed with warm water, but often are brushed with a soft camel-hair brush. Rinsing and brushing both may be necessary to clean the foliage without breaking most of the leaf hairs.

Wiping hairy-leaved plants gently with the beauty of the leaves by removing the hairs and producing numerous wounds.

Smaller plants are often placed under the water faucet and generously watered during the bath. Occasional extra watering is a benefit when you leave the plant in the sink and drain. Extra fertilizer and harmful soil 1/2 residues are removed by the water.

Polish and foliage waxes provide an attractive gloss to most smooth-leaved house plants. Foliage waxes are safe for most plants but should be tested on one or two lower leaves as a test. If no injury occurs after several days you can
"wax" the entire plant.

Levee Board Oks Revised Plan to Approve Payrolls

A resolution authorizing two trustees of the three-man board of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District to approve payrolls, claims, or perform other business of the district was adopted by the board in a meeting Friday.

The proposal was introduced by James Pirtle, East St. Louis, recently appointed by Governor Richard B. Ogilvie to provide a quorum of three so that the board could handle business matters. Previously a quorum of three members was necessary to act on any district business.

The resolution noted that "it has proved to be impossible to conduct regular daily business within the district due to there not being available at all times a majority of the board members (a quorum) to approve payrolls, claims and union contracts."

It authorizes approval of payrolls, claims and other board proceedings "if they are signed by the president and one member of the board." The measure also called for complete screening of all bills approved in this manner, and urges a screening of all employees appointed after March 25.

Tolar Opposed Bill
The board now has three members, including William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice, president; Lawrence Tolar of East St. Louis, and Pirtle. Tolar opposed the resolution, but later voted in favor of it.

The trustees Friday also added $90,000 to its 1972 budget to provide for payment of election judges fees still unpaid from the June 1971 special election in which a full five-man board was elected.

The amendment brought to $1,366,075 the total amount of the general fund budget and to a total of $1,494,150 the overall budget including separate levy items for auditing, municipal retirement and liability insurance.

Venice School Board Redefines Duties Of Administrators Pier and Vickers

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

A realignment of duties for the two top administrators in the Venice School District was authorized by the Venice Board of Education at its meeting Monday night.

In an effort to cut back expenses, the board also elected to curtail attendance by district personnel at out-of-town conferences, seminars and workshops.

The travel regulation will be lifted if expenditures connected with trips are eligible for reimbursement from federal and state sources, or if the lack of participation by personnel has a detrimental effect on school programs.

Expenses incurred on the trip would be paid by herself the teacher explained in a letter to the board. One board member exclaimed, "But her salary and the pay of a substitute teacher for four days will have to come from the district."

Pier pointed out that several seminars and workshops are eligible for reimbursement of expenses under different state and federal programs.

"More and more teachers are expected to go to such seminars," he said, adding, "I believe the day is coming when teachers may have to go into the homes of the children to discuss problems and we will have to set aside more time for parent-teacher conferences. Both will take the teachers out of the classroom."

"I think the opposite might be true," Durer commented, adding, "I think we are going to have to get back to the classroom and the three 'R's' rather than visiting homes."

"Naturally, I believe that the board has to be interested in the professional growth of its staff, but if we are concerned about financing there should be some consistency in ruling whether a teacher can or cannot attend a workshop-conference," Vickers said.

Board Member Jack Tolliver said, "I would make that into a motion right now. I realize the importance of some of these programs and of sending the proper people. Maybe we should have a program schedule drawn up at the start of the year, so we can decide. Most conference dates should be known ahead of the time they are held."

A suggestion by Durer that the travel restrictions also should include convention trips by board members and administrative personnel was met by a statement by Attorney Lawrence T. Hartman that a motion to that effect would be illegal.

Many such programs have been overlooked by necessity due to increased responsibilities of the superintendent which prevented the official from concentrating on the requirements needed to submit program proposals.

pers and gain funds for the district, Durer explained.

Teachers' Back Pay
Pier announced the Internal Revenue Service wage appeal board has approved retroactive pay for Venice teachers, whose salaries were held up by wage-price freeze regulations. All back salaries, hopefully, will be paid faculty members by Friday, he said.

A lengthy discussion concerning the advantages and expense of permitting faculty members to attend out-of-town conferences was instigated by a request from a teacher seeking to take part in a 4-day seminar at Atlanta, Ga.

Mayor Sasyk Urges Citizen Involvement

"We must have more community involvement in solving our city problems," Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison told the Wednesday noon meeting of the Madison Rotary Club in the Madison Recreation Center.

"It is all right to criticize the city and its officials, but citizens who do criticize should be willing to help solve the problems," he added.

Mayor Sasyk outlined to the Rotarians projects being undertaken to improve the city. He said three projects are under way.

The development of two commercial areas, one between Third and Fourth streets and the other between Tenth and Twelfth streets.

An attempt is being made to get another firm to locate a plant in Maers Industrial Park.

"We hope to increase the number of jobs available for residents of Madison, and in talking to new firms we will try to get an agreement with them to give first preference in hiring to Madison people."

The third project the mayor discussed was the development on State street of homes for senior citizens.

Warrior Matmen Set Sights on State Title in Finals Starting Tomorrow

Granite City High School hopes for a state championship this year are pinned on five wrestlers who have made it through the district and sectional competition and will be ready to take on all comers for state crowns at Illinois State University at Normal tomorrow and Saturday.

Granite City, Pekin, Joliet West and Chicago Fenger stand the best chances in the competition as they lead in the number of contenders with five each.

Champions from sectional competition here last weekend are Kevin Niebur (128), Doug Wilson (138) and Jack Schooley (167). Runners-up from the sectional who also advanced are Harry Miller (112) and Craig Stephens (heavyweight). Kerry Johnson (119) is an alternate. Wilson enters the finals with the most impressive record in the state, 40 consecutive match victories. He has not lost a match since his opening bout in the Jacksonville tournament the first day of the wrestling season.

He has earned championships in the sectional, district, conference, Southwest Invitational, Hazelwood, Ritenour and Holiday tournaments this season and last year placed fourth in the state finals.

Ties Record

His 40 match victories this season ties the school record set by Bill Fuchs in 1967 (40-0) and tied by Bob Miller in 1969 (40-4) and is only two short of the state record set last year by Jeff Simons of Peoria Richards (42-2). Fuchs and Miller, both state champions, held the state record until Simons claimed it.

Among Wilson's victories are 22 pins this season. Leading the Warrior state qualifiers in pins is Stephens with 25. Stephens has a 34-9 record and has earned championships in the Jacksonville, Hazelwood, conference and district tournaments.

Niebur's record is an impressive 32-2 with eight pins. He was champion in the Jacksonville, Hazelwood, holiday, conference, district and sectional tournaments this season.

Schools will be attempting to better his 22-1 record this weekend. He has earned eight falls and was the champion in the Hazelwood, conference, district and sectional tournaments.

1965 State Champs

Coach Bill "Red" Schmitt hopes his squad this year can duplicate the achievement of his 1965 squad which won the state crown. That year seven Warriors qualified for state.

In 1966, six Warriors brought the school to a third-place finish, one point away from the second spot. Since that time, the Warriors have not placed at the top on the state level.

The number of qualifiers in 1967 was five; in 1968, four; in 1969 and 1970, five; and last year, four, including Wilson.

Wilson's fourth place finish led the team, and Bruce Miller, brother of Harry Miller, finished sixth. Hershey High School of Arlington Heights won the title last year, with 35 points. Addison Trail followed with 29 and DeKalb finished third with 28. Granite City was 28th with nine points.

The five Warriors will be among 192 from seven state sectionals or the Chicago public schools tournament entered. Competition in Horton Field House at ISU will begin at 1 p.m. tomorrow with the second session set for 7:30 p.m. Saturday's rounds will begin at 1 p.m. with third, fourth and fifth place determination rounds at 6 p.m. and the championships at 9:30 p.m.

Devils Tripped in Overtime, Madison to Meet Brooklyn

The basketball wizards of Venice High School were dropped unexpectedly out of the Columbia Regional Tournament last night in a 55-50 overtime game at the hands of St. Henry's Prep of Belleville.

Personal fouls proved to be the downfall of the local Red Devils of Coach Bill Ohlendorf as officials blew the whistle on them 22 times, giving St. Henry's an opportunity to connect on 21 charity points.

The tournament continues tonight with the Madison Trojans meeting Brooklyn, and the winner will play St. Henry's Friday night for the championship and an advancement to the Class A Sectional Tournament at Vandalia next week. The sectional will include the winners of the Greenville, Litchfield and St. Elmo Regionals.

Both local teams survived first-round games as Venice defeated Columbia 74-61 Monday night and Madison trimmed Lebanon 63-52 Tuesday night. In another Tuesday night game, Brooklyn bested Dupuy 71-62. St. Henry's was top-seeded in the event but had to come from behind for the victory. The Prep team was called on only eight fouls, limiting Venice to six points from the free-throw line.

The Red Devils led 14-11 at the end of the first period and stretched it to 28-19 at the half. But a cold spell struck the local team in a five-point third period, and it was nip-and-tuck in the final period as regulation time ended in a 48-all knot. The Devils outshot prep 22 to 17 from the field.

Scoring for the Devils were Ray Mosby with 14 points, Jim Ohlendorf 12, Ron Henry 10, Algie Smith 7, Dan Maurer 4, Dan Severs 2 and Cornelius Wiley 1. John Strubberg total 22 for St. Henry's.

The Madison Trojans qualified for tonight's semi-final game with Brooklyn by eling out 63-62 victory over Lebanon Tuesday.

In a game that saw the lead change several times the Trojans were ahead at the end of the first quarter 16-16, trailed 36-31 at the half, and took charge going into the final frame by 43-44, holding off a Lebanon team which outscored the Trojans in the final eight 18-15.

Roger Glasper sank two big field goals in the remaining seconds of the game. With four seconds to go Trojan Anthony Matthews snagged a rebound, preventing a Lebanon score and saved the game.

Madison outshot Lebanon 25 to 24 from the field, while Lebanon had the edge from the charity line 14-11. Officials called 16 personals against the Trojans and 15 against the losers.

Young led the Trojan scoring attack with 18 points. Other Madison cagers helping the cause were Jerry Belford and Vernell Glasper with 12; Roger Glasper 9; Sam Byrd 6; Matthews 4 and Ed Chandler 2.

The Venice Red Devils opened the tourney Monday in the 74-61 trouncing of the host club.

Venice held a small lead at the end of every each quarter, 19-15, 35-30 and 51-46 and in the final act the Devils outscored Columbia 23-15.

The Devils led in field goals 28-23 and free throws 16-15. Columbia committed 17 personal fouls and Venice 15.

Scoring for Venice in the opener were Ohlendorf 22; Maurer 17, Henry 15, Severs 10, Mosby 8 and Wiley 2.

Brisky Cited by Old Hearts Vets; Dallen Speaks at Ball

By MARION BARTOSIAK
Press-Record Staff Writer

"Spring training" for the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League was opened early this season by veterans of the old Sacred Heart team which honored one of its best-manager-player Charles Brisky, at a dinner party last night at the Knights of Columbus Club.

The toasts and kudos by about 150 teammates and fans came as a surprise to Brisky, who steered the helm of the Hearts for a long period of the team's history. It was organized in 1931 and endeavored until it was merged with the Mercer team three years ago.

The event also served as a reunion for Brisky, now employed by Shell Oil Co., with Dallen Maxwell, Granite City's star shortstop contribution to the St. Louis Cardinals who at one time played for the Hearts under Brisky's tutelage.

Also receiving top honors were Marion "Pop" Mink, all-time business manager, Dan Sheehan and old trainer John Stanek.

Other past managers receiving recognition were Adrien Rains, Paul Schuler, Ed Hawk, Earl Schardan, Joe Schmidt and Lyman Tucker.

Lefty Scheibel, former Heart pitcher, served as the poet for the occasion, and Monroe "Jack Buck" Worthen was master of ceremonies.

Worthen introduced Maxwell, who, after a confab with the crowd, pulled the surprise on Brisky.

Maxvill related some of the bus driving antics of his business partner and former teammate Joe Hoerner, now of Philadelphia, and explained a "compact contract" with star pitcher Bob Gibson which calls for $200,000. "Gibby gets $155,000," Max mused.

Merger of Cities Again Urged by Mayor John Lee

The Quad-City area should merge into one community to obtain relief from mounting taxes now being assessed against the people by a multiplicity of taxing bodies, Mayor John E. Lee of Venice suggested during a regular meeting of the Venice city Council Tuesday night.

It was a proposal that Mayor Lee has made several times without reaction from officials of Madison, Granite City or Ponton Beach.

He referred to announcement of plans to close the Marshall Division plant of Miles Laboratories, Inc. in Granite City and said, "We may be forced to look at the same situation."

He noted the closing of other plants in the area and remarked that "We should all be one. That way one area could help the other get tax relief. It may not happen in our lifetime, but I think it should be done."

The mayor said some large cities sometime allow a substantial drop in property assessments to help an industry remain in operation but that smaller cities cannot do this. "We all share in area employment," he noted, "so we also should share area problems that affect us all."

Patrolman Resigns

A letter of resignation by Venice Police Officer John J. Fields was accepted by the council. Fields resigned to accept a position as a deputy with the Madison County Sheriff's Department, effective March 5.

An audit report on the McKinley Toll Bridge for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1971, was reviewed by the council. The audit said that the bridge is well managed. It listed a $35,000 increase in operating costs over the previous year and pointed out that this included a $30,000 increase in insurance costs.

A letter from the Illinois Commerce Commission informing the council that hearings on a plea for higher water rates have been postponed to April 6 and 7 in the Leland Building, 527 East Capitol Ave. in Springfield, Ill.

A letter from Robert A. Weiss, manager of the permit section of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency gave the city permission to repair a sewer behind a laundromat on State street.

A letter from the Mal Landfill Corp. informed the city that the cost for each truck of trash will be increased from $1 to $2 per truck. The letter said increasing operating cost made the higher rate necessary.

New 2-Year Pact with Symphony Orchestra

The St. Louis Symphony Society and Local 2-197 of the American Federation of Musicians agreed Monday on a two-year contract covering wages and conditions for members of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra through August 1973.

In 1972-73, minimum salary for the musicians will increase $10 per week to $215 and the pension will be extended from 49 to 51 weeks under the agreement.

Other changes in the contract include an increase to four and six weeks paid vacation in 1971-72 and 1972-73, respectively; major medical and hospitalization coverage provided by the Society; and a revision of the pension plan, making it non-contributory on the part of the musicians.

Changes in working conditions also were agreed on, with a guarantee of 20 five-day weeks in the regular season and a reduction in the number of rehearsals and concerts scheduled during certain weeks.

The three-year contract which expired in August 1971 was extended last September by the Society and the union while negotiations continued, leading to this week's settlement.

The agreement permitted planning to proceed for an orchestra tour of the East in March.

'Hippie Evangelist' Describes Drug Scene

The Rev. Jack Hazelwood, an ex-football player and former drug addict, sometimes called the "hippie evangelist," is leading revival services this week at Calvary Baptist Church.

The public is invited to attend nightly programs through Sunday at 7:30 at the church, located at 3000 Washington Ave. In addition to conducting the evening services, the 27-year-old minister is visiting local schools to discuss with students the dangers of experimenting with drugs. He relates his message to his own experiences on the drug scene.

The Rev. Hazelwood addressed students and faculty members at Venice High School on Monday. Yesterday he spoke to young people at Madison High School and this morning he met with pupils at Madison Junior High School.

Tomorrow, the evangelist will discuss drug problems with Prather Junior High School students at 8:50 a.m., and will be interviewed on KMOX Radio's "At Your Service" program from 1:10 to 1:55 p.m. Friday.

The minister is scheduled to be guest speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club at noon today.

In his appearance at Calvary Baptist Church at 7:30 tonight, the Rev. Hazelwood will speak on the topic, "The Sexual Revolution." He will discuss present day morals, what he refers to as "the playboy philosophy" and relate what he believes God has to say about current life trends.

After this evening's service, the evangelist will show slides detailing several "hip" crusades he has led in the Sunset Strip area, at Houston, Tex.,

and in Denver, Colo.

Lost opportunities because of drugs will be his topic at Friday night's session at the local church.

Based on his own experiences, the ex-drug addict will describe the advantages he missed when he became "hooked" on drugs while a senior at high school in Houston, Tex.

who are afraid they will look bad if it becomes known they have a drug problem in their schools.

"Many of them like to put their head in the sand and pretend that drug problems just do not exist in their particular school," he added.

"I also get disturbed when visiting schools that allow the kids to wear the so-called peace symbol, but won't let them wear the Christian symbols, such as the fish, or pass out religious tracts that could have a positive affect on the student," the Rev. Hazelwood said.

Through the minister's "Out-reach for the Unreached" program he has spoken to thousands of young people and their adult counterparts in 22 states. He will leave here Sunday to continue his evangelistic work in Memphis, Tenn.

TO WED IN AUGUST. Miss Sue Keller, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keller of Collinsville, are announcing her betrothal to Bob Bunselmeyer of Granite City. An August 18 wedding is planned.

Miss Sue Keller Is Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keller of Rural Route Two, Collinsville, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sue, to Bob Bunselmeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bunselmeyer of Rural Route One, Granite City. The bride-elect is employed as a secretary for Harbison-Walker Refractories Co., St. Louis.

60 Attend Party for Patty Winkle

A miscellaneous bride shower honoring Miss Patty Winkle, a March bride-to-be, was hosted this week at the Kirkpatrick Homes Recreation Center by Mesdames Ann Raub, Carol Honchak, Betty Zaruba and Helen Rehms.

More than 60 guests attending the affair were served a dessert luncheon and played games for entertainment. Prizes and favors were awarded by the hostesses.

Guest tables were covered with white linen cloths and each held a bud vase containing purple and yellow sweet peas. The purple and yellow motif, colors of the bridal party, were repeated in the decor of the buffet serving and bride's tables.

A special centerpiece was created by Mrs. Raub, who fashioned a three-tier "wedding cake," complete with bride and groom figurines and decorated with miniature purple flowers and baby breath, from various types of kitchen, hand and bath towels. The unique arrangement later was presented the bride-elect, who received many other gifts from friends and relatives.

Miss Winkle, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Winkle, 4202 Breckenridge Lane, will be married March 11 to Robert Zaruba, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zaruba, 2514 Lynch Ave.

Bangladesh Student Has Mixed Emotions on War

Two months after the new nation of Bangladesh won its freedom from Pakistani rule, the successful war of liberation still evokes mixed emotions for Mohammad Kibria, the only student from Bangladesh at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

The success of the revolt greatly pleases Kibria, who said he worked all of his adolescent and adult years toward "freeing my people the Bengalis from the oppression of the West Pakistanis."

But the civil war also brought Kibria great sorrow, for last December he received a telegram from the war-torn area that his 20-year-old brother had been killed in a slaughter of 120 Bengali intellectuals.

Furthermore, the war wiped out the business of his father, an industrialist, in what before the strife was East Pakistan.

Death a Waste
"My dream had been for my brother to come to the United States to learn the kinds of things I'm learning here," Kibria said. "His death was such a waste. If he had been a soldier fighting with a gun, this I could understand. His only mistake was that he was a student leader with tremendous leadership ability."

Kibria left his country in December 1969 on the advice of those close to Bangladesh leaders. "I was told my life might be in danger because of my political activities," Kibria said.

Kibria said that long before his departure he knew civil war was inevitable. He said although the Bengalis far outnumbered the West Pakistanis, they were kept down because the government leaders in West Pakistan received substantial military and economic aid from foreign governments.

Key Ministry Posts
He said key ministry posts were rarely given to Bengalis, although their qualifications were superior. He said many "tests to qualify for high positions were given only in the Urdu language of West Pakistan, not in the Bengali tongue spoken in East Pakistan. Also, Kibria said, only eight per cent of the armed forces consisted of Bengalis."

"The cause of the war last year was autonomy," Kibria said. "My people wanted only justice but we were called traitors and secessionists. I ask how can we be the secessionist when we had the majority of the population?"

Kibria said the Indian Army and a Bengali army "carrying only bamboo sticks and kitchen knives" defeated the superior tanks and jet planes of the West Pakistanis "because we were fighting for the just cause and the power always lies with the people."

Because he believes most Americans support the new nation of Bangladesh, Kibria said he is disappointed that the American government sided with the military government of Pakistan and does not recognize Bangladesh.

"America is the champion of democracy, the land of Lincoln and Jefferson, yet its government sided with the worst dictatorship in the world, a dictatorship that practiced systematic genocide by killing Bengali professors, doctors, engineers, and other professionals."

Cousin at Carbondale
Kibria came to Southern Illinois after leaving Pakistan because his cousin is studying at SIU at Carbondale. Kibria decided on SIU-SW "after seeing this place and falling in love with it."

Before entering SIU-SW, he had earned a bachelor's and master's degree from Dacca University. Since entering, he has earned a bachelor's and master's degree in sociology and is working on a second master's degree in education. He also is president of the Campus International Club and works as night manager at the University Center.

Kibria hopes to earn a Ph.D. before returning to Bangladesh to teach and be reunited with his war-torn family.

Bangladesh, he said, will be different from what East Pakistan was.

"The Bengalis are a nation with its own distinctive culture, art, language and history," he said. "In short, we have our own outlook on life, and independence will give us a chance to develop our neglected country."

Kibria said liberation is just a starting point for a nation that has many problems.

"Maybe we'll survive and maybe we won't, but with the missionary zeal of the Bengali people I think we will."

Picture Signs Will Replace Nearly All Traffic Markings

By MIKE CLARK
Capey News Service
Springfield — Arrows, trucks, circles, slashes and other symbols will replace the words on traffic signs we see today. Under a national program, almost every sign on city streets, county roads and state routes in Illinois will be obsolete within three years.

The new signs will begin appearing in various areas in several months. Their principle is that a picture can be understood faster than a row of words.

A red circle and a slash, for instance, is the international symbol for "no." Placed over an arrow pointing left, a motorist should know it means "No Left Turn." Placed over a truck, it means "No Trucks Allowed."

Symbols have been used on the nation's curve and crossroad signs since the first standard for rural signs was prepared in 1937. Symbol signs are commonly used in Europe, where language barriers are greater.

The divisions in traffic control devices are being installed under rule changes made in 1970 by the Federal Highway Administration.

"The first of the signs will be going up on state routes in April or May," said Richard Adorian of the State Department of Transportation. "The transition to the symbol signs will be very gradual because it is a very expensive proposition for all the counties and cities to change almost overnight."

The federal rules require present signs be completely replaced with symbol signs by the end of 1974, since most signs have a service life of five years. New pavement markings are required by the end of 1972 since they require replacement.

Although the changes may sound revolutionary, they are based on concepts familiar to the average driver.

Shapes such as the eight-sided stop sign, the triangular yield sign and the rectangular information sign are commonly used.

By placing symbols rather than words on familiar shapes, traffic signs are supposed to be understood at a glance.

Color also will be used even more than in the past.

Red means stop. It will be displayed on the new yield sign to give added emphasis to the potential stop requirement.

The "Do Not Enter" sign will use a large red circle to increase its effectiveness.

Two solid yellow lines will be used in the city on all two-way streets. Whenever a yellow line appears, motorists will know to expect oncoming traffic or lack of clear space, as an expressway shoulder.

Orange and brown colors are traffic signs—orange on construction signs and brown on recreational and scenic signs.

Blue indicates motorist services such as a public telephone or camping facilities.

Street signs will have white letters on a green background. Mileage and directional signs will have either white letters on a green background or black letters on a white background.

CUB PACK 28 BANQUET

The third annual "blue and gold" banquet of Cub Pack 28 of the Parkway School PTA was held in the new Fellowship Hall of Suburban Baptist Church.

Special guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Vladimir Fryntzko, Mrs. Fryntzko, principal of Parkway School. They and Cubmaster and Mrs. Edward Monahan were seated at the head table.

Scouts representing each den in the Pack presented a flag ceremony under the direction of Frank Flemming, assistant cubmaster. Following the pledge of allegiance, a den mother, Mrs. Suzanne Brooks, led singing of "America," with Keith Monahan accompanying on the organ.

A ham and chicken pot luck supper was served to 150 persons. Each den was responsible for table favors and decorations, and all followed the cub scout birthday theme.

Committee Chairman Sam Roe introduced the Webelos Den, which gave a costumed original play under the direction of their Webelos leader, William F. Winter. Roe also introduced William Apperson, a local magician, who presented a magic show.

Prizes were won by Darin Dawson and Robert Kirgan. An announcement was made of a "bake sale" the pack will sponsor Saturday, March 4, at Gaslight Plaza. Mrs. Donna McIlvroy and Mrs. Charlotte Root volunteered to assist the den leaders.

Awards were distributed by Assistant Cubmaster Flemming to the following:

Den One, led by Mrs. Marylou Clausen and Mrs. Brooks; Clinton Porter, wolf badge; David Carnahan, wolf badge and gold and silver arrows; Jimmy Clausen, wolf badge and gold arrow; David Clausen, bear badge, gold arrow and assistant denier bars; Wayne Eberhart, bear badge; and Danny Graville, bear badge and denier bars.

Den Three, Mrs. Harriet Lovins and Mrs. Ruth Bischof — Brad Bischof, one-year pin, and Jimmy Lombardi, two-year pin.

The pack observed Boy Scout Week by presenting the colors at a PTA meeting, and with a display in the showcase at Parkway School. Scouts met at Suburban Baptist Church to attend worship services as a group.

TIPS ON POLYESTER CARE

Watch the temperature gauge when caring for polyesters.

Polyester will give when ironed with a too-hot iron. And they will wrinkle-set whenever the wash water or drying temperature gets too high.

For polyesters that need touching up, keep the iron on a synthetic setting to avoid that unwanted shiny look.

When washing polyesters, use warm water—not hot—and you will avoid wrinkle-set. However, you can usually remove wrinkles by rewashing the garment in cold water.

Temperature as previously used. This practice seems to relax the fabric enough to release the wrinkles.

Tumble drying also helps remove garments as soon as the cycle is finished.

HOME-SEWING ROOM

An estimated 300 million—or two out of five—new garments produced in 1971 were sewn at home. And fiber makers predict that the market for home-sewing will grow at a rate of 7 to 10 percent per year.

SEAM FINISHING FOR KNITS

Since knit fabrics seldom ravel, no special seam finishing is generally necessary. With jerseys that tend to roll at the edges, however, edge stitching or zigzagging the seam allowances may help prevent roll.

Unlined garments require a finished look if seam allowance are machine zigzagged or stitched together close to the original seam and then trimmed to one-eighth inch.

Johnson and Marshall McElroy. A monthly meeting of the unit will be held Wednesday, March 1, at Grace Baptist Church. The women will gather at 10 a.m. to hear a local attorney, Philip Theis, speak on "What Are My Legal Rights?"

Members are to bring sack lunches and the business meeting will continue at 1 p.m. Visitors may attend the day session, which also will feature one of the Madison County Home Extension advisors in a major lesson on "Laundry Products and Problems."

NAMEOKI PTA RINK PARTY

Nameoki PTA will sponsor a family skating party Monday, Feb. 28, from 6 until 8 p.m. at the Stardust roller rink. Admission tickets are 75 cents available at the door.

The PTA will hold its annual "basketball bazaar" Friday, March 3, the doors opening at 6 p.m. Food service will be provided as well as games of skill, a white elephant booth and basketball games.

GOURMET COOKWARE BY Flamenco

Imported Cookware for

- Superb cooking
- Picture-pretty elegance
- Easier handling
- Faster clean-up

What cooks better and easier than steel? Porcelain-clad steel, of course! You'll enjoy the easy cooking on a low, low flame. The sure way to turn an ordinary dish into a gourmet masterpiece, and save on fuel costs at the same time.

Looks? See for yourself. Flamenco Gourmet Cookware is as much at home on the table as on the stove. Cook and serve right in the same piece. The tight-fitting lids keep everything hot, and the smart decorator colors add a festive touch at any meal. Brilliant decorator colors on the outside, gleaming white inside to highlight your food.

You'll enjoy using Flamenco. The covers are easy-grip continental style, with custom-contoured thumb grip handles that won't twist or heat up.

And after the meal you'll find Flamenco Gourmet Cookware cleans as easy as it cooks. No scouring. No scrubbing. No special cleansers, just soap and water, in dishpan or dishwasher.

Available a different piece each week in fashion perfect colors.

NEW PROGRAMS in juvenile corrections for State of Illinois were outlined at a three-day workshop at Pere Marquette State Park lodge last week for members of the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and selected key personnel of the Juvenile Division, Department of Corrections. At left is Warner G. Semetis, director of the Giant City State Boys Camp, explaining new programs to William Owens, superintendent of the Dixon Springs forestry camp, who recently joined the Juvenile Division.

State Agencies Join in New Programs To Rehabilitate Youthful Offenders

By WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer

Cooperation between two different state agencies was demonstrated last week at Pere Marquette State Park lodge as members of the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and the Juvenile Division of the Department of Corrections met to work out new programs of rehabilitation for young offenders.

Approximately 35 key state personnel from both agencies participated in the special workshop that ended Thursday.

The new joint venture calls for trained DVR personnel to be assigned to four state institutions, New Salem, Mississippi Palisades, Giant City and Dixon

Freshman Applications Cut Off at Eastern

Eastern Illinois University has announced it will accept no further freshman applications for the 1972 fall quarter, except for certain scholarship recipients.

Dr. Sam Taber, dean of Student Academic Services, also said the cutoff includes transfer applicants at the freshman and sophomore levels and all applicants for readmission at the undergraduate level. The university had previously announced the possibility of the early closure.

Curtailed of applications from transfer students at the junior level or above is imminent and closure will be applied without further public notice, the university announced. Taber said the cutoff would come "when enough applications are received to meet class-level enrollment projections."

No restrictions on graduate level enrollments are contemplated at this time, Taber said. He emphasized that both graduate and undergraduate applications for the 1972 summer quarter are being accepted and that persons interested in enrolling at that time are encouraged to apply early.

the Department of Corrections, stated at the meeting.

"We will be able to expand our work programs and develop new programs in industrial and vocational areas with this added DVR assistance," he added.

It is important that before a juvenile offender is released, that we effect a change in his attitude toward society and help him become a productive member of our society, rather than a liability," Semetis said.

Joe Coughlin, assistant director of the Department of Corrections, in charge of the juvenile division, and Lynn D. Unterbrink, superintendent of state forestry camps and schools in the juvenile division, headed the select group of state correctionists attending the workshop.

SIU-SW Art Graduates Enter Varying Fields

Too many college art programs spend too much time teaching teachers to teach teachers to paint like little children, a well-known weekly news magazine has charged.

"This isn't true at Southern Illinois University-Southwest," Prof. David Huntley, chairman of the art and design department, says. "Here we encourage students not to go into teaching art, but to put your talents to practical and humanitarian uses. There are many areas other than public school teaching where an art major can serve others."

Citing examples, Huntley said some of the SIU-SW art graduates are going into private and parochial schools, neighborhood youth programs, correctional institutions and cooperative enrichment programs.

"They are going into mental and regular hospitals to provide therapy for long-term patients," he said. "They are also going into summer camps and city and county park and recreation programs."

"Today there is a revival of things made by hand," the art professor pointed out. "Some of our graduates are getting involved with manufacturers of art objects and some are setting up their own handcrafting shops in jewelry, weaving and ceramics."

"We are not a technical school," he said, "but the whole purpose of the institution is to educate and to teach students to think, be flexible and to use initiative and imagination in creating their own jobs. It's foolish to believe that every art graduate is equipped to teach. Our main concern is to turn out artists who can think and adapt to many situations."

One art graduate, Dan Lowrey, has just returned from

Newbury Reaches People In Their Own Language

By JUDY HUGG
Capley News Service

A balladeer is a balladeer, that is, unless you are speaking about Mickey Newbury, whose new album "Prisco Mabel Joy" on the Elektra label is sweeping the country by storm.

Newbury is a soft-spoken, country gentleman from Houston, Tex., who is down-to-earth and tells it like it is in his songs, sometimes emotional and sentimental and at other times humorous and airy.

Perhaps until recently, Newbury's success has been in his ability to put on paper his thoughts in a way that enabled every man to feel them as his own. Andy Williams, Kenny Rogers and The First Edition, Ray Charles, Buffy St. Marie, Sam Baker, Jerry Lee Lewis, Wholens Jennings, Lufu and Don Gibson are just a few of the contemporary artists who have used Mickey's songs to further their own cause.

Now Newbury's singing his own songs and his cut of "An American Trilogy" is shooting him to even a higher orbit on the merits of his strong rich voice.

Frisco Depot

Other songs such as "Frisco Depot," "Swiss Cottage Place," and "Mobile Blue" cover a large cross section of the country and Mickey's feelings of losses and love.

However, he has this to say about his writing style: "If a cat tells me he's just writing, Mickey tells me that the title is a little deceiving because most of the cuts are sad and lonesome sounding. However, Mickey says:

"True, but you gotta separate the man from his work to some extent. If you write something sad, people think you're always that way yourself. It happens that you write when you're sad, 'cause when you're sad, you're out groovin'." But everybody suffers, man. It's just that one guy writes about it and another cries.

Besides an outstanding collection of cuts and Mickey's faultless delivery, the album has added another new twist. Newbury and his producer, Dennis Linde, came up with the idea of using the work of steel pedal virtuoso Weldon Myrie, who produced the sound of those lovely strings you hear on "How Much of This World Does Piper Be Loved?" "I remember the Good" and "American Trilogy."

Myrie, who is capable of pulling all sorts of extraordinary and unexpected sounds from his steel pedal, did just that for the album. Overdubbing turned him into a whole string section and one astonishing thing is the fact that the entire album's arrangement was ad-libbed on the spot.

In his lifetime, Mickey has done a lot of things and perhaps this one album, which transports his images into emotions and feelings for all to hear, is the most important part of his life as of yet.

Upon entering the Air Force, Mickey dropped his music for some seven months. Then he started messing around with the piano in the canteen, recalling, "I just had to get my hands on something that made music."

It wasn't until he reached the age of 24 that he really started to get into music with a full head of steam. It was then that he realized the effect that his background handed him.

"Houston was really a strange area for music, because it was a transient population that went from about a half-million to a million and a half in just a few years," he said. "That brought in a lot of different kinds of people, and a lot of different kinds of music. There were a lot of people — like my family — who couldn't make it farming so they moved into the city."

"Their music was country music; when I was a kid, that music I heard then. There was to listen to what they called 'race' music, because in those days there was no chance to hear a black artist on a white station. I liked all the music I heard then. There was a lot of good jazz music happening and Bluebird was really big. And I grew up in a Mexican neighborhood so I had that kind of influence, too, though I don't really count that as part of my music."

Sad, Lonesome

Taking another spin around "Frisco Mabel Joy," it seems that the title is a little deceiving because most of the cuts are sad and lonesome sounding. However, Mickey says:

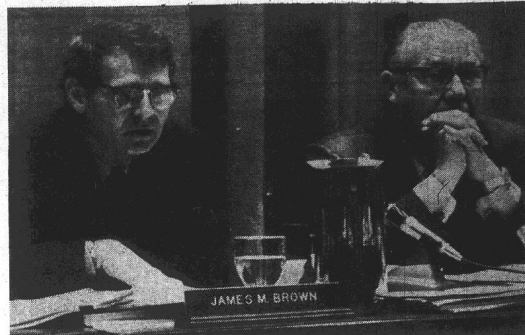

"True, but you gotta separate the man from his work to some extent. If you write something sad, people think you're always that way yourself. It happens that you write when you're sad, 'cause when you're sad, you're out groovin'." But everybody suffers, man. It's just that one guy writes about it and another cries.

Besides an outstanding collection of cuts and Mickey's faultless delivery, the album has added another new twist. ENGINEERING AGREEMENT—Dr. James M. Brown, left, chief of the Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees staff, reads an agreement between the SIU-SW administration and the Illinois Board of Higher Education on undergraduate engineering at Southwestern. Harold Fischer of Granite City, chairman of the SIU trustees, is at right.

Students Heckle SIU Trustees

A demonstration protesting the denial of tenure to Douglas Allen, controversial philosophy instructor at the SIU Carbondale campus, was staged during a meeting of the SIU Board of Trustees at the Southwestern campus during the weekend of about 40 SIU Carbondale students.

The group arrived in two buses an hour late. The protesters, carrying signs, cancelled a rally at the Religious Center and then went to the board meeting, where they sat quietly in the rear of the room.

They took their signs into the meeting. One of them said, "Bored of Trustees — Save Doug," and another said, "Trustees Can't Bear the Truth."

Allen, who has been denied tenure by the SIU board, has been an outspoken critic of the Vietnamese Studies Center in Carbondale.

The SIU board in November 1970 overrode recommendations of his faculty department chairman, the tenure committee and the school administration that Allen be retained. He was denied tenure again by the board on Dec. 11, 1971.

A letter from Allen asking reconsideration of tenure was read by the board during the meeting and the demonstrators all stood waving their signs. A petition from the group asking for Allen's retention was acknowledged by the board and the demonstrators left, marching through the University Center.

Addition to Communications Building Canceled by Board

Southern Illinois University trustees have voted to terminate a proposed addition to the Communications Building at the Southwestern campus because bids received exceeded the maximum funds available for the project.

In December 1965, the trustees authorized preliminary architectural services by Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum, Inc. A contract between the firm and the trustees was signed March 12, 1968.

In May 1968 the project was assigned to the Illinois Building Authority. Plans were completed and bids were called for last spring.

The lowest bid received was 22.5% in excess of estimated project costs and 29.9% over funds available for construction.

The IBA fund limit on the project was $4.1 million. Last June, the IBA formally rejected all bids on the basis of inadequate budget and excessive square-foot costs.

Dr. John S. Rendleman, SIU-SW president, advised the trustees that modification of the original plans to bring them within budgetary limits was not feasible—and that major facilities which would have been provided in the project can be included in future buildings.

Moonspinners Filling Out Forms Is Hold Project Night Basic to College Life

Moonspinners 4-H Club members met Feb. 17 for their monthly project night at Nannette United Presbyterian Church and welcomed five new members into their organization.

New members are Mary Ann Colbert, Sherry Ketcher, Linda Lyly, Rhonda Ketcher and Donna Ketcher.

Sewing project leaders, Mrs. Josephine Gram and Mrs. Margaret DeRuntz, assisted members with their sewing (seams, and Mrs. Elizabeth Schmidt, club leader and knitting instructor, directed girls enrolled in that lesson.

Mothers present included Mrs. Ruth Malotki, co-leader, Mrs. Mary Carich, and Mrs. Marie Turner, and Mrs. Agnes Butler, grandmother of member Mary Ann Colbert.

Girls present were Debbie Schaeffer, Mary Anne Bequette, Jane Friederich, Karen Ozbun, Anita Turner, Carolyn Goldsich, Betty Ann Komadina, Mary Jane Bushong, Lori Malotki, Rita DeRuntz, Kathleen DeRuntz, and Laura Carich.

The club toured the yarn department of the W. T. Grant Store Saturday afternoon. Conducting the tour was Mrs. Naomi Randall, manager. The girls were shown all materials and accessories that could be used for their projects.

The tour was arranged by Mrs. Schmidt. Other mothers and guests attending were Mesdames Kathryn Ponce, Helen DeRuntz, Margaret DeRuntz, Ruth Malotki, Ann DeRuntz and Miss Linda Schmidt.

Filling out forms is a basic condition of college life these days and most students suffer it about like G.I.s suffer standing in lines.

But there's one questionnaire that the recipients seem to suffer gladly, a form from the News Service of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale that goes to students who make "straight A's" in the fall quarter.

Each year's sampling turns up some offbeat responses and some quirky reflections of what it's like to be a student and what's going on in the contemporary college head.

For instance, "Irrelevant Forms" "Filling out in relevant forms" "Lots of bike riding with my dog, Annabelle" "Study! Study! Study!" "Deaesseling com" (this from a coed who says she's done this for seven years).

"HOBBIES—" "Raising Peke-poo puppies" "Men" "Fixing broken appliances" (two people claimed this) "Pop culture" "Enjoying the beauty of the world" "Loving" "Pollution" "Talking walks with my husband, Dan" "Wine" and, written quite boldly, "New baby born Dec. 16, 1971, Doctor's Memorial Hospital, Carbondale—Brian Christopher, 7 lbs., 2 1/2 oz."

SPECIAL INTERESTS—"Development of alternate power source for the internal combustion engine" "The future of mankind."

Most have their photographs taken for home town newspapers, some prefer not to. One explanation: "My home town paper doesn't print anything but pictures of doctors' children."

Plans on graduation? In past years, the blank marked "Plans on graduation" have been filled in with a certain explicitness. Nowadays, it is apparent that a good number of students—and these are many of the very best ones—aren't at all sure what they'll be doing. "Don't know" "Lost" "Unfixed" "Get a job, if possible" these are showing up more and more.

The old search for permanence goes on, however. Like: "Be the world's greatest French teacher!" "Acquiring some land and building and furnishing my own house from scratch" (a girl student) "I did! Hurra!" (she finished her graduation requirements) "To be a farm wife and a mother" (this from one who is getting a degree in social welfare).

Then there is the underclassman who ran up all those "A's" while studying government. What are his plans on graduation? "To raise, breed and sell parrots."

Cardinal Spellman Loved Baseball

Editor's Note: Francis Cardinal Spellman, 1889-1968, was the first American to be appointed to the secretariat of state in the Vatican. Named archbishop of New York in 1959, he was created a cardinal in 1964. This is another in a series on what famous people were like in their teens.

By BETT ANDERSON
Copley News Service

To Francis Spellman, the year 1902 was the one in which he blew out 13 candles on his birthday cake.

To serious students everywhere, it was the glorious year when the Rhodes scholarships were founded at Oxford University. To Oklahomaans, it was the year they first saw mail delivered by car instead of by carriage.

The strange sight caused 27 horses to run away. Spellman lived a sort of Huck Finn fun existence in a small town in Massachusetts called Whitman. Jobs were plentiful there but a boy could always pick up a few extra cents if he tried. And Frank tried—everything from throwing newspapers on broad verandas at daybreak every day to rubbing door neighbors' horses.

Open graduation, these paying chores to interfere with baseball, his favorite sport. When baseball was rained out, he worked in his darkroom developing pictures which he snapped with an old box camera. And he never allowed spare time he had to acting as manager of the ball team.

At 15, Frank won more money than he'd ever dreamed of. It was a grand prize of $10 for the best essay written by ninth graders on the Battle of Gettysburg.

Then, two years later, he again won first prize for the best article on the Civil War trip to Washington, D. C. He thought the Smithsonian Institution was the most. And everyone agreed that he did a neat job of telling about the thrill of seeing President Theodore Roosevelt in church.

Open graduation, Frank entered St. John's College. Both he and the college were suffering growing pains. They were both small, had financial problems and dreamed big dreams.

Later St. John's College became the renowned Fordham University. And the teen-ager known as Frank Spellman became Francis Cardinal Spellman, one of the most brilliant and beloved members of the Catholic hierarchy.

Cardinal Spellman was never a stained glass hero but a warm, sensitive, dedicated human being.

State Among Highest In Scholarship Aid
With college education costs already high and still rising, how does the final aid to students from the Illinois State Scholarship Commission compare with that of other states in other states?

Only two states, New York and Pennsylvania, provide more student aid for higher education than Illinois, according to figures compiled by the ISSC and made available through the Southern Illinois University financial assistance office.

In scholarships and grants, which are based on need, the Illinois State Scholarship Commission during the current 1971-72 school year has made available $30.4 million to 58,000 students statewide, in both public and private colleges and universities. This compares with the $76.2 million which New York is providing for nearly 200,000 students and Pennsylvania's contribution of $55.4 million to 93,000 students.

The Illinois educational contribution, however, is much higher than that of other such populous states as California ($18.8 million), Michigan ($12 million), New Jersey ($21.9 million), Ohio ($15 million), Wisconsin ($3.5 million), and Texas ($1 million).

David L. Allen Makes Perfect Grade Average

David L. Allen of Granite City, a senior on the campus of Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, recorded a perfect 5.0 grade point average during the fall term.

Allen, six-time Deans' List student as a mathematics major at SIU, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Allen, 3711 Namet Road. He is a graduate of Anna-Jonesboro High School.

He expects to be graduated in June and plans to teach mathematics.

Robin Nunn Elected Explorer President

Robin Nunn, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nunn, 2453 Center St., was elected president of the Explorers Post #89, a general science specialty co-ed post sponsored by Miles Laboratories, Inc.

Young Nunn is a former post vice-president. He is a brotherhood member of the Cahokia Lodge Order of the Arrow and is chairman of the Lodge activities committee.

In the post election Nunn defeated the incumbent president Maurice Dailey Jr. Dailey was elected second vice-president. Other officers elected were: Phil Flanagan, 17, first vice-president; Deena Oram, secretary; and Alan Stawar, 16, treasurer.

With the Miles Laboratories plant scheduling to shut down next month, the Explorers are seeking a new sponsoring group by a local industry so they can continue activity in the field of general science.

Plans were advanced for the post's 10-day trip to the Lake of the Ozarks this summer. Members of the post have conducted several money-raising projects such as barbecues, and glass drives and raise money for the trip.

Dr. Barry Murphy, an organic chemist at the Miles plant, is post advisor.

Young Musicians May Register Now for Camp

Advances registrations from teenage musicians are already coming to Southern Illinois University at Carbondale for the 1972 summer music camp, "Music and Youth at Southern," scheduled for July 9-22, according to Melvin Sienier, camp coordinator.

Guest directors include John Wirtz of River Forest High School, Oak Park, orchestra; W. H. Beckmeyer, music supervisor at Mount Vernon, chorus director; and Al Posten from Jonesboro, Ark., High School, band director.

The music camp is open to talented high school students, including those who graduate from the eighth grade this year, Sienier said.

The students will have the opportunity to participate in band, chorus, orchestra, piano and stage band, and to receive instruction in conducting, theory and instrument repair, as well as in music listening.

They will also have the opportunity to attend University cultural attractions and to participate in social and recreational activities at the Lake-on-Campus and at the Student Center.

Fee for the summer camp is $115, including room and board (with the exception of Sunday evening meals) in university housing.

ASSEMBLY LINE

On Jan. 14, 1974, automobile industrialist Henry Ford introduced the assembly line into his Detroit car plant.

Lambert Rozycki Is Promoted at Belvoir

Specialist Five Lambert R. Rozycki, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander B. Rozycki, 2828 Grand Ave., has been promoted to his present rank during a special ceremony held at the U. S. Army Computer Systems Command (USACSC) Headquarters at Fort Belvoir, Va.

Major General Henry C. Schrader, USACSC commanding general, conducted the promotion ceremony, and was assisted by Command Sergeant Major James W. Craven Jr.

Spec. 5 Rozycki, who is assigned to a computer programming for Force Accounting Data Systems Directorate, is a 1970 graduate of Southern Illinois University-Southern campus with a BS degree in mathematics.

He was graduated from Granite City High School in June 1966. Prior to entering the service in September 1970, the soldier was a programmer for cultural attractions and to participate in social and recreational activities at the Lake-on-Campus and at the Student Center.

The serviceman's parents received a personal letter of commendation about their son from the directorate's commanding officer.

Outstanding PTA Award to Mrs. Jean Edwards

OUTSTANDING PTA WORKER. Mrs. Jean Edwards left, accepts award for outstanding contributions to Parent-Teacher Association activities from Mrs. Patricia Polley, a past award winner and chairman of Granite City Area PTA Council selection committee. The 1972 winner is immediate past president of Emerson School PTA.

Mrs. Alvin W. (Jean) Edwards, 2388 Benton St., an active worker and member of Emerson School PTA, was named recipient of the "Outstanding PTA Worker of the Year Award" at the 14th annual awards appreciation banquet of the Granite City Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations.

The mother of three daughters—one married, another a student at St. Luke's School of Nursing and the youngest now a pupil at Central Junior High School—Mrs. Edwards has served in various capacities in Emerson PTA.

She is immediate past president and previously served as vice president and secretary-treasurer of the PTA unit.

Mrs. Edwards was cited for "outstanding contribution in all phases of PTA activities" at the area council banquet held in the cafeteria at Granite City High School. More than 100 representatives of local PTA units and several guests attended.

Mrs. Patricia Polley, chairman of the awards committee and winner of the "PTA Worker" award last year, made the presentation to the new honoree.

Mrs. Juanita Hunter, area council president, introduced Granite City Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis, who was accorded special recognition and presented with a plaque.

The council executive also presented "Certificates of Recognition" to the past area council presidents, among whom are Mrs. Raymond McDonald, Mrs.

EARL LEE
PTA Dinner Speaker

Alia Stewart, Lee Reid, George Moore, Mrs. Kathleen Tadlock, Mrs. Lucille Caban, Arthur Menendez, Mrs. Polley, Mrs. Twila McKinney and Dr. Benjamin Rose.

A certificate honoring the late Mrs. Rosa O. Nightingale was accepted by her daughter, Mrs. June Branding.

A warm welcome was extended to Earl Lee, former principal of Nameoki Grade School, who retired from the position of administrative assistant of personnel for the Granite City School District three years ago.

Lee, who was guest speaker at the banquet, was the first recipient of the "Outstanding PTA Worker Award."

Entertainment was provided by the Mississippi Valley Chapter of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, a Collinsville group.

The Rev. Gus Falter, pastor of Pontoon Baptist Church, gave the invocation.

Among the special guests attending the dinner were A. L. "Pete" Metcalf and George Moore, members of the Granite City Board of Education; Mrs. Metcalf; Supt. and Mrs. Davis; PTA District 29 Director Richard Hulse and Mrs. Hulse; and Granite City High School Principal Lawrence McCauley and Mrs. McCauley.

In honor of the special occasion, Cindy Dew, a 6th grade pupil at Mitchell School, wrote a short poem relating her views about PTA.

The poem, recited at the dinner, read thusly—"P is for parents or grownups that care. T is for teachers that help everywhere. A is for association the people that try—to help all the cities and towns get by. Now put it together and what have you got—PTA and that means a lot."

New Screening Policies For Teacher Education

New admissions policies to carefully screen all students applying to teacher education programs at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern are expected to become effective by early March.

Deane Wiley, dean of the Education Division, and Ivan Kussner, dean of the College of Education, said Tuesday afternoon the policies are designed to raise the quality of SIU-SW graduates certified to teach in Illinois.

Wiley said the policies will be unique in the state. The changes, Wiley said, are in response to rapidly worsening job market for secondary and elementary school teachers and to a $105,000 reduction in the teacher education program recommended by the Illinois Board of Higher Education as part of a statewide reduction for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1.

Once the changes are approved by Vice-President and Provost Andrew Kochman, the moratorium on admissions to teacher education programs will be lifted. The moratorium has been effective since early January.

Affect Fresh, Sophs The changed admission policies, Wiley said, will affect students who are sophomores, freshmen or who are planning to enter SIU-SW Juniors and seniors already admitted to teacher education programs.

Specific admission policies will be set in each of the six teacher education programs: Elementary education, secondary education, music teacher education, special education, speech and audiology education and health and physical education.

Wiley said admission to programs will not be based solely on grade point average, the past practice.

It is easy to cut back the number of graduates certified to teach would simply be to raise the grade point requirement for student teaching from 3.2 to 3.4 (out of 5.0), Wiley said. "That would eliminate 50% of our students. But

Social Studies Club to Hold Mock Convention

The Social Studies Club at Granite City High School will hold a mock presidential nominating convention from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Friday, March 24, in the school gym.

The project was approved by the Board of Education Monday night after considering the project submitted by Dennis Orsey, club president.

To keep the convention as realistic as possible, but as non-political, the convention will relate to the views and beliefs of the true candidates seeking the nomination this year, Orsey's statement read.

"Delegates and candidates to the convention will be chosen from the student body. The exact number of delegates will be based on a proportionate scale as to the number of election votes each state receives now. Delegates will then be given a state to represent. Candidates will be required to present brief speeches, stating ideas and goals, after which the voting would take place."

The club is planning banners, bunting and delegate badges to make the convention as realistic as possible.

Orsey noted the 18-year-old vote for the first time and the impact it will have on election results. "It is the general opinion of most that because the youth vote will have such a great impact that the thoughts and views of the youth must be listened to and understood," the statement read.

"Not only must they be heard but they must be convinced that their votes do mean something. Apathy must not be allowed to run wild among the young voters."

Charged for Conduct

Gary L. Hoerle, 24, of 2227 Edison Ave., was arrested Monday at the Mister Do Not Shop, 3135 Nameoki Road, on disorderly conduct charge. He was accused of pulling a gun on three young boys.

Reassignment of internationally famed designer and theoretician R. Buckminster Fuller as university professor in the office of the president of Southern Illinois University-Southwestern and appointment of a new dean of students are among personnel changes approved by the SIU board of trustees.

Fuller, previously assigned to SIU at Carbondale, announced last September that he would open an office at Southwestern in order to be closer to a proposed massive redesign project for the inner city of East St. Louis. Fuller is expected to open the office at the start of the new fiscal year in July.

Warren L. Brown, former assistant dean, was named dean of students to succeed Ramon N. Williamson who is now vice-president for student affairs. Brown has been a member of the SIU-SW staff since 1963 and has served as assistant dean of students since 1968. He also is an associate professor of secondary education.

Brown earned a bachelor of science in education degree at Northwest Missouri State College and master of education and doctor of education degrees from the University of Missouri. He is a resident of Edwardsville.

Other Appointments

Other appointments approved by the trustees include: Mrs. Nancy M. Hay as assistant dean of students. Mrs. Hay joined SIU-SW in September 1971 as a member of the Counseling and Testing staff. She earned a master's degree from Michigan State University and is a candidate for a doctor of philosophy degree from MSU next month.

Mrs. Erline Flottman as assistant dean of the Nursing Division. Mrs. Flottman joined the department in September, 1970, as a lecturer in psychiatric nursing and is now an assistant professor and program director.

Charles B. Schweizer as director of foundations administration. Schweizer has been serving as assistant director of the SIU Foundation since 1968. Reorganization of the University structure required appointment of a director for the SIU Foundation at Southwestern.

Warren Stookey as director of Alumni Services. Stookey has been serving as assistant director of the SIU-SW since 1961. His reassignment is part of the decentralization program of the University.

Reappointment of Donald C. Madison as chairman of the secondary education faculty. Madison has been on leave from the position during the fall quarter.

Reappointment of Charles A. Corr as chairman of the philosophical studies department. Corr served as acting dean of the Humanities Division during the sabbatical leave of Dean Gerald T. Runkle. He earned a doctoral degree at St. Louis University.

Pollution Control 'A Big Job' But Local Department is Ready

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

"It is remarkable how much work has been done—and how much is yet to be done," Dr. Reed Sutton, head of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Department, said in an interview.

Dr. Sutton who has assumed his new duties, was nearly obscured among mountains of files, folders and paperwork concerning air pollution in Granite City, the results of work by the city's air pollution control board and its technical secretary, Professor Erwin C. Hoelscher.

"I have dealt with emissions and air pollution many years in my job with Shell Oil Co. in Wood River, but this is the first time I have dealt in what you might call the political end of pollution control," he explained.

"Before I was dealing with an inanimate object and now I will be dealing with people. It is quite a different thing."

He said he felt the department's new role as one of supplementing and complementing the Illinois and federal Environmental Protection Agencies. He explained one of his first tasks will be formation of a comprehensive local program which will not duplicate work now being done by the EPA.

Unique Problems
"The local area, EPA office is in Collinsville, and although its area includes Granite City, we feel we have unique problems which will be served better by a local pollution control department," Dr. Sutton said.

"Granite City has been expanding in the last 75 years and the control of air pollution has not kept pace. We can not roll back 75 years immediately," Dr. Sutton commented, explaining the new program will take time before definite results will be noticeable.

He said the primary task of the department will be to see that all new equipment installed in industries here complies with air pollution regulations and that as older units are repaired or reconstructed, the work is done according to law.

"We also intend to see that the industries establish proper maintenance procedures on the new or repaired equipment to see that it does not further harm our air quality," Sutton said.

Work With EPA
He said both tasks, approving new equipment and repairs and maintenance plans, will be done in cooperation with the EPA.

'A BIG JOB' is how Dr. Reed Sutton, head of the new Granite City Air Pollution Control Department, sees his job. Viewing several smokestacks through his office window, he commented, "Granite City has been expanding for 75 years and air pollution control has not kept pace, but at least we are not starting at the bottom."

Asked if he felt his job would be difficult, Dr. Sutton said he feels the task simply is one of education.

"I don't know of any industries who say 'the public be damned.' It is a matter of education—teaching the industries what air quality is."

"An industry or an individual cannot endanger the air for the community. It is not their right. It is to our best interests to get the air to a condition in which it is acceptable," he said.

Dr. Sutton has established six major tasks he will face in making the department workable.

"The first, he explained, will be establishing a citizen complaint and follow-up procedure. "We want the people to help us and we are going to be responsive to their complaints and suggestions," he said.

Secondly, he will develop a public information program to keep Granite City residents informed of steps being taken to curb pollution here, and new laws which will have local impact.

Set Up Library

His third task will be to establish an air pollution reference library which will be open to the public. Included will be reference materials, booklets, pamphlets, letters and other documents pertaining to local air pollution control.

The fourth is to establish a workable means of communication with the EPA.

Another task will be to conduct periodic inspections and reviews of industrial emission reduction programs in conjunction with the EPA.

His sixth task will be to add Granite City to the nationwide air pollution alert network, again in conjunction with the EPA.

2 Man Department
At present, Dr. Sutton and a secretary, Brenda O'Dell, make up the entire department.

"We plan someday to add another full-time man, but for the time being, until I have a chance to read all of this and figure out where we are and

Cancer Society Ball Nets $6,200 for Unit

The Mardi Gras Ball Committee of the American Cancer Society has announced that a net profit of $6,200 was raised at this year's gala dance.

Mrs. Ruth Wilderman, American Cancer Society executive director for Madison County said the figure set an all-time record for the Mardi Gras Ball, and the funds will give the county unit "a good start toward achieving its Crusade goal of $58,000 for 1972."

The committee met this week to evaluate the successful event and begin preliminary planning for next year's Mardi Gras Ball, Mrs. Wilderman advised.

Although April is designated as National Cancer Month, special events such as the ball can be held at any time during the year, the director explained.

"Special programs like our dance are becoming increasingly important in our efforts to raise more money for the fight against cancer."

All funds raised by the American Cancer Society are used to achieve its three-fold program of public and professional education, service to the cancer patient and research work," she pointed out.

More than 4,000 volunteers in Madison County will ring doorbells during April in an effort to collect most of the money needed to achieve the $58,000 goal, Mrs. Wilderman said.

where we are going, I think Brenda and I will keep going as we are," he said.

"We do have one thing going for us," Dr. Sutton said, illustrating his words with gestures. "At least we are not starting at the bottom. With the work Henry Bieneck (chairman of the air pollution control board) and Professor Hoelscher have done, we are starting somewhere in the middle, but it is a long way to the top."

Plans for Two Buildings At SIU-SW are Cancelled

Two building scheduled for construction at Southern Illinois University's Vocational-Technical Institute at Southwestern campus have been pulled off the drawing boards.

SIU's board of trustees have withdrawn the buildings because a contemplated VTI move to the main Carbondale campus will make them unnecessary.

They were to have been a $1,745,000 health education complex and a $795,000 power plant. Both had been approved by the legislature as Illinois Building Authority projects but the money had not been released.

At the same time the SIU board reaffirmed needs for three other deferred projects, including a $2,500,000 VTI classroom building. Those funds have been released by Gov. Richard Ogilvie but the project requires further legislative authority to move construction to Carbondale.

Other buildings for which the Illinois Board of Higher Education has asked program justification are a Center for the Advanced Study of Physical Sciences ($7,415,200) and a General Office Building ($5,069,000). The office structure was first approved in the 1967-68 budget.

Trustees said the General Office Building will put a variety of now-dispersed student services under one roof. They include the Office of Admissions and Records, bursar, student work, financial assistance, housing, General Studies advisement, President's Scholars of

85% of Black Students At SIU Receiving Aid

A study of financial aid to black students at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale covering the 1970-71 school year, shows that more than 85% of the 1,200 black students enrolled received an average of $1,006 in one or more kinds of assistance during the year.

Included in financial aids are grants, tuition awards, scholarships, loans and on-campus part-time work.

The information is contained in an article in the Feb. 16 issue of "FAME" (Financial Aids and Modern Education) published by the SIU Student Work and Financial Assistance office. The author is Charles E. Gray, assistant to the director of the SIU financial aids program.

The amount paid to the 1,037 black aid recipients (89%) was $1,043,470. This does not include payments for veterans benefits, Social Security, or Vocational Rehabilitation. If these awards had been computed and included at the minimum amounts, the total would have come to $1,253,138, or average per student of $1,247.

Council Rejects Bill for 'Disclosure' Exemptions

An ordinance that would exempt city appointees who serve without pay from complying with disclosure requirements of newly adopted ethics legislation was defeated by the city council Monday night in a roll call vote of 7 against and 6 in favor. One council member was absent.

Defeat of the bill brought from Mayor Donald Prentice, sponsor of the ordinance, a prediction that "we will have wholesale resignations from the people who have been serving on our boards and commissions."

He said he had asked the ordinance be brought in because he felt many of the city's commission and board members would refuse to disclose their income, and would resign their posts before complying with disclosure requirements of the law.

Several aldermen challenged the authority of the city to pass an ordinance that would supercede a state law, but City Attorney Leon Scroggins said that in his opinion the city legally could do so under the home rule provisions of the 1970 constitution. Granite City is a home rule municipality.

Alderman Walter Nann criticized the disclosure requirements as "a duplication of what we already put into our income tax forms." Scroggins told the council members he will send to them a 6-page report by the Illinois Municipal League concerning the requirements.

The ordinance was introduced in the Feb. 7 council session. The aldermen refused to act on final passage of the measure at that time and placed it on their first reading unit they could consider the question of the city's authority in adopting such a bill.

Mayor Parsney said that persons appointed to such city groups as the Library Board, the City Plan Commission and the Zoning Board will get these posts if they are required to meet the disclosure requirements.

Gulley Honored by Manufacturers For Extensive Community Service

Lyle F. Gulley, consultant and past president of Granite City Steel Co., was announced during the weekend as the latest recipient of the annual "Let George Do It" award of the Manufacturers Association of the Tri-Cities.

Award of a pewee cup inscribed "Let Lyle Do It—1971," cited his extensive civic service. It was announced at the group's annual dinner, held at the Missouri Athletic Club.

A statement by William F. Hoelscher, Manufacturers Association general manager and secretary, outlined the activities of Gulley and others considered for the award:

"Five years ago, I reported the realization that magnificent more can be accomplished by numerous individual member company representatives in local civic affairs than can ever be accomplished by the association staff.

"This award was devised to honor one industrial line representative each year for his efforts on behalf of not just his own company, but in the solution of problems which faced the entire Association family. "Presentation of the award is an attitude of cooperation and active participation and not the spirit of 'let George do it' we are all striving continually to overcome.

"In the past year, the five previous award winners have again demonstrated the wisdom of their selection.

"Donald F. Cairns, originally chosen for his leadership to our own local Environmental Quality Committee and the Industrial Waste Control Council, was elected to the position of vice-president of Granite City Steel Co. and at year's end had achieved a settlement agreement with the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and Pollution Control Board dismissing charges made against the company and providing for a program of air emissions control on all phases of the company's operations.

"Cliff Blankenship of the A.O. Smith Corp. in 1971 became one of our first local 'certified safety professional of the Americas' and served the year as chairman of the Lay Advisory Board of St. Elizabeth Hospital during a most crucial period in the final stage of the hospital's modernization and expansion project.

"Gene Burnett, although no longer employed as a safety professional by local industry, still works closely with our member industries as an Illinois state factory inspector.

"Rich Milonski, assistant works manager of American

LYLE F. GULLEY

Steel Foundries, honored for his United Fund, again bore a heavy United Fund burden as chairman of the overall Industrial Firms Division of the 1972 campaign.

"Arthur Schoenebeck, engineer, Granite City Steel, spent the better part of 1971 dealing with the day-to-day problems of the hospital's construction and modernization program as chairman of the Building Committee, for which he was originally drafted in 1969.

"His efforts have been suitably and deservedly commemorated by a special plaque hanging in the main entrance of the new hospital wing.

"Again this year the 'George' award could easily be made to a number of persons.

"Richard L. Lich, president of the Castings Division of General Steel Industries, as president of the Association, is to be commended on his 1971 direct approach to the community and organized labor concerning economic problems facing our community—and for acting as the stimulus for what appears to be a 1972 opportunity for a viable relationship between our political leadership, our general community, labor, industry and commerce to work at economic goals in the common interest.

"Paul Kelly plant manager of A. O. Smith Corp., came doubly to the rescue and assumed both co-chairmanship of the 1972 United Fund drive and a seat on the Association's board of directors replacing Paul Kemp, president of the United Fund drive and in his August transfer to the Milwaukee head office.

"Kelly further picked up the whole ball of wax when his 1972 United Fund campaign co-chairman, Lyle Gulley, became ill after the campaign had begun.

"Al Steinhauer, works manager of American Steel Foundries, who has long been active in the Boy Scouts, United Fund and Chamber of Commerce and is a past president of this Association, served as the 1970-71 chairman of the Southern Division of the Illinois Manufacturers Association.

"Mel McKay, assistant treasurer of Granite City Steel Co., who has served for many years with the YMCA board, Boy

Scholarship Foundation, continued in 1971 as treasurer of the United Fund.

"Walter F. Hoelscher, vice president—Finance, Granite City Steel, who has accepted many civic assignments in the past and was the principal founder of the Tri-Cities Taxpayers Group served in 1971 as chairman of the highly successful Large Water Users Group.

"In considering staff and line executives for the 1971 award, we could not overlook Austin Witter, tax manager of General Steel Industries, who is a member of directors and the Tri-Cities United Fund, past president of the St. Elizabeth Hospital Advisory Board, in 1971 the board representative to the Southwestern Illinois Hospital Planning Council, and treasurer of the St. Louis Chapter of the Tax Executive Institute.

"Bob Edmonds, director of information services of Granite City Steel, is a past local school board member, an ex-president of the St. Elizabeth Hospital, and in 1971 was chairman of the hospital's Computer Committee.

"Tom Conches, manager-industrial relations for the Marshall Division of Miles Laboratories, in 1970 and 1971 served as a member of the St. Elizabeth Hospital Advisory Board, heading a committee of persons who utilized their own not only has completely reviewed the policies and functions of the hospital but served in special with 1971 with preparations for manning the hospital's new wing, just dedicated.

"Bob Schenke, controller of the A. O. Smith Corporation's Granite City plant, is a member of the board of directors of the YMCA and was just elected the first president of the Tri-Cities Taxpayers Group, a job he will find considerable energy in 1972.

"Tom Kolesa, assistant to the president of the Casting Division of General Steel Industries, has served for some years with the United Fund campaign. In 1971 he continued as a member of the board of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce and assisted Dick Lich with the 'economics' appeal to labor and the community.

"Tom Barton of General Steel Industries, Bill Donovan of American Steel Foundries and Don Treder of A.O. Smith are all deserving of special mention for their 1972 United Fund assistance to Industrial Firms Chairman Mitch Milonski and general Co-Chairman Paul Kelly.

"Hoelscher continued, "Thoughts concerning this award also go to three men, who in 1971 left both the Association's board and active management of an Association member company's local operations.

"Paul Kemp, our Association President in 1970 and 1971 until his transfer, piled up a really amazing record in 1969 as chairman of the Admissions and Distributions Committees of the Tri-City Area United Fund, chairman of the local U.S. Savings Bond campaign, chairman of the Madison County Tuberculosis Association's Christmas seal drive and chairman of the 1969 Sunken Ranger campaign for the Boy Scouts.

"In 1970, served as chairman of the United Fund's Large Industrial Firms Section, and in 1971 he was saved from the full effects of co-chairmanship of the 1972 United Fund drive only by his timely promotion to Milwaukee.

"Bob Schuessler, in 1971 a vice-president of the Association, a vice-president of the Tri-

Cities Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the Utilities Section of the 1972 United Fund campaign, was well regarded by our general community for the kind of energetic personality that inspired the employees of the local Nestle plant to the best yet unbroken safety record in that company's history.

"Mr. Gulley, who retired as president of Granite City Steel Co., due to ill health and now serves as a consultant to the company, is not only a past president of the Association, from 1959 to 1961, but has served on the Association's board since 1944.

"Lyle's history of civic participation goes back even before his activity in the Association and a true list of his service to the local community would be impossible to compile.

"In just the last several years, he served as co-chairman of the fund-raising campaign to help build the new wing of St. Elizabeth Hospital, is the current president of the Governing Board of the hospital and in 1971 was simultaneously a member of the board of our local manufacturers' association, the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce and the First Granite City National Bank.

"Furthering his interest in improving labor relations in the St. Louis Metropolitan area, he has served from its inception on the 'LAMP' Labor and Management Program committee of the St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Corp. and as a founding member of the board of directors of the Council of Contractor Associations.

"In 1971, he also spent many hours in negotiation attempts to guarantee our local industrial firms gas supplies as a member of the executive committee of the Industrial Gas Users Conference.

As president of our community's largest employer, Mr. Gulley has offered many opportunities for civic service and as a community leader he served always."

GC Officers Nominees in Federal Awards Program

Two military residents of Granite City will represent the Army Mobility Command in competition for honors in the Greater St. Louis Federal Awards Program to be held March 17 at Stouffer's Riverfront Inn.

Sergeant First Class Roger V. Moody, 23A Wanda Drive, was judged as MECOM's top non commissioned officer, and Captain Marvin H. Baker, 14-1 Kennedy Drive, was selected as the agency's junior officer.

Nominees are judged for their performance on the job, service to the community and self-improvement efforts.

Sergeant Moody, a stock control accounting specialist, is a Vietnam veteran with over 14 years of service. Sgt. Moody's extensive knowledge of the Army's supply system has enabled him to effectively supervise 13 employees, and accomplish a large workload concerned with data processing paperwork to process supply programs.

He has been credited with procedural improvements which have resulted in speedier processing of requisitions. In his off-duty time Sgt. Moody works with the Mitchell Athletic Club, managing an 8 coaching a soccer team and coaching both basketball and baseball.

He has taught himself to use keypunch equipment, verifiers, sorters, reproducers, tab listing and collating machines to better equip himself for his job. Captain Baker is acting as executive officer for the Command's Directorate of Material Management.

In January 1970, he returned from two tours in Vietnam, where he had received a direct appointment from Warrant Officer to second lieutenant and rose to the rank of captain. The decorations he earned in Vietnam as a helicopter pilot include the Air Medal with 31 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Commendation Medal, the Bronze Star Medal for Meritorious Service, the Bronze Star Medal for Valor with two Oak Leaf Clusters and the Distinguished Flying Cross for Heroism.

The 27-year-old Texan has over nine years Army service. In his present position, Captain Baker is responsible for all administrative functions of the division and formulation of policies. He also is the project officer for transfer of logistics responsibility between MECOM and other defense agencies. As an example of the scope of this project, in the past year 4,500 items were transferred to Defense Supply agencies, and 2,000 lines were dropped from the federal supply system.

Captain Baker has completed 87 semester hours towards a degree in Business Administration. He presently is enrolled

Catch-Up Highway Work Here Is Proposed in Senate

Senator Sam M. Vadalabene (D, Edwardsville) announced this week that he would submit legislation in this session of the General Assembly requiring the state to replace funds lost to the bonds authorized through a $900,000,000 transportation bond issue to replace funds lost to this region during the three-year freeze on road construction in Madison and St. Clair Counties.

The legislation calls for the Illinois director of transportation to expend all of the money for road improvements and construction of new roads within District Eight of the State Highway Division. The proposal also provides that state of the bonds be consummated within six months from the time the legislation is passed.

Sen. Vadalabene said, "I think it is only fair and proper that the funds taken away from us during the freeze should be replaced.

"Certainly, our area needs road improvements as badly as any other area in the state. We should not be penalized because of unworkable plans proposed by the administration."

"The money was taken from us arbitrarily and I believe it is the duty of the legislature and administration to right the obvious wrong. I would hope that this bill would receive the backing of the governor, but whether it does or not, I intend to pursue it with all the vigor I can command."

"The improvements for which funds were allocated three years ago were desperately needed then. Because of the ineptitude of the state administration, we have now fallen even farther behind. The time to redress these inequities is now."

Three Persons Injured, Driver Faces Charges

Three persons were injured when an auto driven by Norman D. Smith, 21, of Rural Route One, left the roadway, struck a metal utility pole and bounced back into the southbound auto of Judy L. Wilkinson, 19, of East Alton. Monday in the 2500 block of Madison Avenue.

Smith, charged with reckless driving, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment of a lacerated lower lip and abrasions to the lower right leg. Mr. Wilkinson and Kay Wilkinson, 1, complained of pains.

A few minutes before the accident, police received a disturbance call at Belleme Reese Drug Store. He also was charged with disorderly conduct and was released on $100 cash bail.

Two Youths Arrested

Timothy K. Beck, 19, of 803 Kirkpatrick Homes, and Juvenile, 16, were arrested this week on a charge of stealing gasoline from Schultz & Birch Cookie Co. truck at 812 Twenty-fourth St.

Charged With Theft

Darlene Loraine Venable, 17, of 2000 Thirteenth St., Madison, was arrested at Schermer Brothers Market in Madison at 5:20 p.m. Monday and charged with theft. She allegedly attempted to leave the store without paying for two pairs of pants hose, valued at about $4, police reported.

SIU-SW Dental School Can Reduce Problems

Dental problems could be greatly reduced if more persons understood dental care as an intrinsic part of overall health care, says Dr. Ralph Knowles Jr., chairman of the department of Health Management at the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern School of Dental Medicine.

Knowles for many years has been backing the low priority given to dental health both by individuals and by governments. Before joining the SIU-SW faculty last Nov. 1, Knowles spent 10 years as director of the Missouri Bureau of Dental Health. Prior to his state job, he had a private dental practice in Jefferson City, Mo.

"Preventive measures just don't have wide acceptance," Knowles said. "Tooth decay and periodontal disease are common problems. You can stop anybody on the street and he can tell you how to prevent both decay — he'll say by brushing regularly, by visiting a dentist regularly and by not eating too many sweets."

"But the average person brushes no more than once a day, doesn't visit his dentist every year and eats sweets indiscriminately."

Opposition to water fluoridation in many areas still exists, Knowles said, nearly 30 years after fluoridation was shown to be effective in alleviating tooth decay.

"Fluoridation has been considered by the U.S. Public Health Service and by various medical associations. They said there are no harmful effects that have ever been substantiated," Knowles said. "The cost of fluoridating a water supply averages less than 10 cents per person per year. Yet today only eight states require fluoridation."

Knowles, who has a doctor of dental surgery degree from St. Louis University and a master's degree in public health from the University of Michigan, said many state governments give dental health short shrift.

Programs Get Whacked

"In welfare programs, when the money gets short dental programs are the first to get whacked," Knowles said. "For the physicians or lay people who often control the money, dentistry isn't important. In most states, dental programs provide little more than emergency measures."

Poor administration of dental programs in many states complicates the problem of little funding, Knowles said. He said incremental programs are best. In incremental programs, the state insures dental care for children and continues that care on a regular basis.

"But instead some administrators jump in and try to protect everyone's dental health," Knowles said. "When you do this and don't have enough money, you eventually have to set a limit and drop people from the program. All you do is postpone an eventual breakdown because five years after a person has stopped being treated, his mouth may be in as bad shape as someone who never got treatment at all."

Changes in attitudes about the importance of dental health must be accomplished through education, which Knowles calls "a slow, tedious process."

Knowles, who lives in Alton, said he hopes the SIU-SW School of Dental Medicine will graduate what he terms "socially sensitive dentists."

"Upon graduation, a dentist has a certain responsibility to his community," Knowles said. "There is an increased demand for treatment — part of a feeling that good health is a right, not just a privilege."

Knowles said community health centers appear to be a way to provide comprehensive and quality dental care to low-income areas, or areas isolated from dental care facilities.

"SIU-SW dental students will be very much aware of the value of community health centers," Knowles said. "There is a responsibility to provide care to everyone, not just to people with money in their pockets."

IS OUR HOUSE THE BEST VALUE IN TOWN TODAY???

We Think So—and Heres' Why... In our opinion the Basement House, in the Granite City area, will increase in value, over the value of a non-basement or slab house with a garage, to the extent that its increased value should, within ten years, be worth the price of a new car to you.

The basement home, has the advantage of easy and inexpensive expansion for additional bedroom or family room, while you are making money living in it.

In other words... the basement house has better, quicker, and higher re-sale value.

Daley Wants Percy to Win, Williams Charges

Dakin Williams, speaking to the Granite City Rotary Club Tuesday, moved from his campaign platform of "peace and love" to assail the other U. S. Senate contenders, Congressman Roman C. Pucinski (D) and Senator Charles Percy (R).

Calling Pucinski "a patsy for Percy," the Collinsville Democrat, an attorney, said labor unions want Percy re-elected because of his voting record. "Since unions supply Mayor Daley of Chicago with much of his campaign money, I believe they prevailed on the mayor to slate a candidate who would be easy for Percy to beat," Williams told the club.

He characterized Pucinski's record after 14 years in Congress as "distinguished only by his staunch support of former President Johnson's Vietnam war policies, and his opposition to the war."

to the legitimate goals of civil rights activists."

Pucinski, like Percy, is a resident of the Chicago area and has no support south of the Pekin-Peoria area. Williams said after the talk, "Percy, he asserted, is well-known but not well-liked Downstate."

"Downstate Republicans have become increasingly disenchanted with Sen. Percy, largely because of his practice of carrying favor with labor. He should follow the example of New York Mayor John Lindsay and proclaim himself a Democrat."

"Both Pucinski and Percy strive to outdo each other in voting pro-labor, a fact which is threatening our economy with runaway inflation."

"Unions demand wage increases which in turn motivate manufacturers to increase prices, with the end result that the product is priced out of the market, leading the company to declare bankruptcy or follow the example of Percy's Bell & Howell in shifting operations to Japan."

"In the long run, labor suffers both in rising unemployment, and in its role as consumers, by being forced to pay higher prices for consumer goods," Williams concluded.

He was introduced by Chris Paschoff, program chairman. President A. H. Froelich announced that a joint Rotary-Optimist dinner dated at Sunset Hills Country Club has been changed to March 24.

33 Districts Try Multi-Unit Grade School Programs

Copley News Service
Springfield — In increasing numbers of Illinois schools, pupils can no longer say they are in Miss James' third grade class and that all 30 of the third graders are "learning" fractions.

Instead, increasing numbers of pupils are members of "suities" with 100 to 150 members, taught by a "master" teacher and three or four other teachers, backed up by teachers' aides, secretaries and other supportive staff members.

Educators say the child so stylized is learning more, learning better and faster, and even stating publicly he actually enjoys school.

Technically, the approach is known as Individually Guided Education, part of the concept of Multiunit Elementary School programs.

The idea was first developed in Wisconsin, where a research and development center for cognitive learning was opened in 1964.

Federal Health, Education and Welfare grants totaling $641,600 have been made to the Wisconsin center, which in the 1965-66 school year started 13 units into action.

To date 34 attendance centers in 33 school districts in Illinois have implemented the program, under which pupils in a given unit may represent an age span of three to four years, instead of the usual two-year

Three Junior Achievement specialists working for two JA companies sponsored by Granite City Steel Co., have topped the $100 sales figure in marketing their products.

Sam Sharp, coordinating advisor for JA firms affiliated with the local steel plant, announced today that sales in excess of $100 each have been achieved by Randall Schmidt, Jeanette Livesay and Mary McQuay.

Miss Livesay and Schmidt, spread in conventional "graded" classrooms.

State School Supt. Michael J. Bakalis' office has entered into an agreement with the Wisconsin center to implement adoption of the program by Illinois schools.

Another 50 schools have indicated they will enroll in the program for the 1972-73 school year.

In other areas where the multi-unit concept has been tried, officials have reported a sharp decline in vandalism and absenteeism at the schools, gains in learning rates among students, greater enthusiasm among teachers and, in some cases, reduced costs linked to expanded services.

In order to participate in the program, the school district involved must enter into a separate agreement with Bakalis' office, indicating that the district understands the theories and organizational structure of the program and is committed to make "the best effort possible" to implement it.

Districts adopting the program must agree to provide all of the seven backup programs, which include establishment of a multi-unit elementary school, a system of instructional programming, appropriate curriculum materials and instructional procedures, a design for measurement and evaluation, home-school communications programs, a facilitative environment and a program of research and development.

Original impetus in the program was on reading and mathematics skills.

But science approaches are added as materials become available, and other areas will be included in the future, according to present master plans for increased multi-unit adoption.

both Granite City High School students, work with the "Grando" JA enterprise. The firm produces and markets barbecue pits, sold for $12 each, and embossed book matches, retailing to customers at $2.50 a box.

Miss McQuay, a student at Madison High School, is a member of the "Allico" JA company, which assembled and decorated Christmas wreaths for $2 each. The firm currently is making fudge for sale at $1 per pound.

Members of both the "Grando" and "Allico" companies conduct their activities on Tuesday evenings in different areas of the Junior Achievement Business Center, 3307 Wabash Ave.

In addition to Sharp, other Granite City Steel employees who work with the JA youth groups include Larry Druhe, production advisor and Lloyd Miller, alternate advisor, for "Grando"; and Dave Schmidt, production advisor and Curt Pounds, alternate advisor with the "Allico" firm.

Bill Eaker of GCS serves as sales advisor to both Junior Achievement companies. About 16 young people are members of each JA firm.
